The Lord is my light and my salvation!

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

The Blame Game

Sin brings out the worst in us. It comes from inner weakness. It produces the desire to cover it up. If others remain ignorant of our sin, they will think more kindly of us. So we hide the sin. Or we lie about it. Or we blame someone else. Sin brings out the worst.

When Adam and Eve talked with God about their sin, you could hear them trying to get off easy. They blamed someone else. Adam blamed Eve. Eve blamed the serpent. Neither of them accepted responsibility for their actions. The Book of Genesis remembers our first parents as pioneering, precious souls who lived and loved in paradise. But it also remembers the worst of them: the sin and the cover-up.

Thankfully, the story does not end there. God punishes the serpent, the ultimate source of temptation. Adam and Eve were responsible for their choices, but the serpent was responsible for the temptation. God sorted all this out.

God said to the serpent, "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike at your head, while you strike at his heel."

In those words we Christians read a prophecy of the coming of Christ. He is the offspring, the Word made flesh, who defeats Satan and his heirs.

Yes, sin brings out the worst in us, but it brought out the best in God: our salvation in Jesus Christ.

Fr. John

We still need teachers for next year, remember (“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal. - But store up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay destroys, nor thieves break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.) This includes your Faith, it’s supposed to be passed on. God Bless “God gives prayer growth precisely according to our degree of readiness for it. He forces no one. According as we are more or less receptive, He bestows more or less depth of communion. In the same manner, five hundred people in a parish church all hear the same sound waves during the homily, but they profit from it exactly as they are or are not disposed for the message. Jesus taught the same truth in his parable of the sower, from the word of God, some hearers yield nothing at all, while others yield thirty or sixty or a hundredfold.”

Meditation for the Day

Prayer is of many kinds, but of whatever kind, prayer is the linking up of the heart and mind to God. So, if prayer is only a glance of faith, a look or a word of love, or just a feeling of confidence in the goodness and purpose in the universe, still the result of that prayer is added strength to meet all temptations and to overcome them. Even if no supplication is expressed, the supply of strength that is necessary is secured, because the soul, being linked and united to God, receives from God all spiritual help needed. The soul, when in its human body, still needs the things belonging to its heavenly habitation.

Lord, I don't want to look at life through rose colored glasses but I would like to see the world through your eyes, through the lens of your wisdom...

I want to see the truth wherever it waits to be found, and with the same precision I want to spot what's false lest I confuse it with the truth...

I want to see the inner beauty in every human being I know and meet: I want to see and love in my neighbors what you see and love in them, Lord, and not be distracted by my resentments and grudges, my bias, prejudice and pride...

I want to see your warm fingerprints, Lord, in every corner of creation: from atoms to the Atlantic from ants to elephants, from my own backyard through the universe...

I want to see clearly and always, Lord, what decision to make,
what choice is the best,
which path is the one you call me to follow...

I'd like to see, before it's too late, the consequences of my words and deeds, my silence and my passivity, my courage and my fears...

I'd like to see, with clarity, all that tries to deceive, seduce and delude me, whatever tempts me to go astray, entices me to play with fire, clouds my judgment, blurs my vision, and tempts me to look at life through rose colored glasses...

I want to see as you see, Lord, to see beyond appearances and into the heart of things, to know and understand the world around me through your eyes, Lord, and to see all that is good and true, right and just, holy and gracious, pure and wholesome...

Open my eyes that I may see, Lord, not through rose colored glasses but as you see, Lord, as you see...Amen
