Give joy to the souls
of your servants, O God

PASTOR'S COMMENTS
Borrowed from Paul Turner

Blessings without Measure

Those born into a loving family receive blessings without measure. They are given a name and a nationality. They receive food and drink. They are kept clean and free from danger. They receive a language, a faith, a culture, customs, and education. The gifts a family bestows cannot be numbered or adequately acknowledged.

As children of God, we have received blessings as well. The Letter to the Ephesians says we were adopted by God through Jesus Christ. We receive forgiveness. And we receive knowledge of the mystery of God's will. This incredible package of gifts is ours due to the goodness of God.

We are used to paying what something is worth, and receiving a wage for our work. But once in a while, some merchant does you a favor. You get a rebate. You buy one and get one free. A debt is relaxed. And it feels like the mercy of God has fallen into your lap.

God has given us the greatest gifts freely. Such generosity inspires us to give freely as well. We share our income with those less fortunate—not because they did something for us, but because we want to be kind. We give up our time to help the church or community—not because we cannot pay for a service, but because commitment requires muscles, brains, and patience as well. God has blessed us, and we can share our blessings with the world.

St. John Paul didn't just celebrate the Mass and teach us it. He taught us how to live the Mass. "That your life should be a Mass where your body is given up as a sacrifice for the salvation of the whole world."

THE SERVANTS OF CHARITY

Please welcome Father Silvio De Nard, SdC
next weekend 7/22-23. The Servants of Charity take care of those precious "treasures" who have no one else to care for them, by following the example of Jesus, Good Samaritan, and by walking in the footsteps of their Founder, Saint Louis Guanella.

The Servants of Charity, present in 25
countries, are concerned in a special way (1)
with abandoned children and youth (orphans, child soldiers, street kids); (2) abandoned
elderly deprived of human support; (3) abandoned persons with developmental disabilities; and (4) an Apostolate of Prayer dedicated to St. Joseph for the suffering and dying throughout the world.

Saint Louis Guanella said: "Take in the most abandoned of all, have them sit at the table with you and make them one of your own, because they are Jesus Christ."

The Servants of Charity in the United States are members of the Religious Province that includes also the Philippines, India, Vietnam,
the Solomon Islands.

If you want to be miserable --- Resent Somebody

The moment you start to resent a person you become that person's slave. He or she controls your dreams, absorbs your digestion, robs you of your peace of mind and good will, and takes away the pleasure of your work.

The person you resent ruins your spirituality and nullifies your prayers. You cannot take a vacation without that person going along!

He or she destroys your freedom of mind and hounds you wherever you go.

There is no way to escape the person you resent.

That person is with you when you are awake and invades your privacy when you sleep.

That person is close beside you when you eat, when you drive your car, and when you are on the job.

You can never have efficiency or happiness.

The person you resent influences even the tone of your voice.

He or she requires you to take medicine for indigestion, headaches, and loss of energy.

That person even steals your last moment of consciousness before you go to sleep.

So if you want to be a slave, harbor your resentments.
