Sing to our God, a new song

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

The Path to Peace

Forgiveness can be hard to achieve. If you have broken a relationship that you wish could be restored, you know the longing for reconciliation.

In some cases, you may not even seek reconciliation. You may still be angry over an injury committed against you, your home, or someone you love. You may wonder how one nation could ever reconcile with another after being at war. The death and destruction caused by war lies beyond imagination; healing seems unreachable. Then forgiveness seems not only hard—it seems impossible.

In the first century, the separation between Jews and Gentiles was severe. The Letter to the Ephesians called it a “dividing wall of enmity.” It seemed as though the two groups would never agree, never get together, never heal the old wounds.

But then came Jesus, who suffered and died so that everyone might have life. Ephesians says, “He is our peace, he who made both one.” Through the cross, Christ put death to death, but he also put enmity to death. “He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.”

Forgiveness may seem unreachable, but all things are possible with Christ. He provides a middle ground where hope is alive and peace is real. Those who listen to his message and heed his words are already on the path of reconciliation.

Fr. John

God Bless

O God, be a companion for me along the path, a guide at crossroads, strength in my weariness, defense before dangers, shelter on the way, shade against heat, light in the darkness, a comforter in my discouragements and firmness in my intentions, in order that, through your guidance, I might arrive unscathed at the end of my journey, and enriched with graces and virtues, I might return safely to my home, filled with salutary and lasting joy.

Spread the word

Due to recent closures and retirements in local parishes some people are now seeking a new church to make their spiritual home.

When aware of this, a kind word of support for Saint Robert's can make a wonderful difference.

If you love our parish, why not tell your friends and neighbors to come and visit us.
