All things are of your will,
 my God!

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

An Uncompromised Choice

Sooner or later you have to decide. Faced with a difficult decision, you have to decide what to do.

Our choices reveal what we really prize. Before making a choice, then, it helps to review our values. Which choice gives the strongest affirmation to the principles we hold dear? If we take a different choice, we doom ourselves to living with compromised values. We are not who we thought we were. We hold other things precious.

When Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, he told the people they had to make a choice. God brought them up out of the land of Egypt, performed miracles before their very eyes, and protected them along their entire journey. This God wanted to be their only God. They should no longer serve other gods. They had to decide.

Joshua said, "As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

The people answered the same.

Before you make a difficult choice, think about how God has brought you to this day. God brought you and your family to safety, performed miracles before your very eyes, and protected you thus far. Remember, then make your choice.

"As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Fr. John

"What does Jesus Christ do in the Eucharist? It is God who, as our Savior, offers himself each day for us to his Father's justice. If you are in difficulties and sorrows, he will comfort and relieve you. If you are sick, he will either cure you or give you strength to suffer so as to merit Heaven. If the devil, the world, and the flesh are making war upon you, he will give you the weapons with which to fight, to resist, and to win victory. If you are poor, he will enrich you with all sorts of riches for time and eternity. Let us open the door of his sacred and adorable Heart, and be wrapped about for an instant by the flames of his love, and we shall see what a God who loves us can do. O my God, who shall be able to comprehend?"

— St. John Vianney

Once a word is spoken, it flies out, you can't catch it.— Russian proverb

Some of us have said many mean words. Our words most often hurt the people we love. We can never really take back those words. But hopefully we're learning now to speak with care. We know that words have a lot of power. What do we say when we're angry? When we want something? When we're trying to be kind? Now, think about this: people will remember our words. If we're honest and careful in our speech, people will respect us. But if we say things to force our will, we may be sorry later.

SAVE THE DATE

What is Bible Day Camp/Fun for Jesus Day?

Bible Day Camp/Fun for Jesus Day is a 2 hour block of time where children come together to have lots of fun discovering God with their peers. Each session focuses on a specific theme from the bible and is broken into fun and playful segments. Crafts, theatrical plays, stories, movies, dance, song, prayer, coloring and more are some of the ways the message is conveyed. It is a fun filled morning that children truly love to take part in and is of no cost. We encourage you to bring them and see what we're about.

Children ages pre-k to grades 5 are welcome to attend and a snack and drink are always provided. Parents can drop off their children for the two hour block of time or they are welcome to stay and participate. We offer Bible Day Camp/Fun for Jesus Day once a month. Please refer to the calendar's list of events for upcoming dates. We ask that parents sign up their child on the Youth Group Poster board located in the church lobby one week ahead of time. It ensures we have the necessary supplies needed. Should you forget to sign up or not get a chance, please call us at 764-5910 to let us know. Our number is also on the front of the bulletin.

What is Family Fun Day?

Family Fun Day is a planned activity for the entire family. We welcome all and encourage everyone to attend. Any activities held off the church grounds require a parent to accompany their child. Activities within the church are available for parents to drop off their children for the allotted amount of time. A required fee is charged for most activities off the church grounds. Please refer to the Youth Group calendar for specific fees. An easel in the church lobby will be displayed for all sign-ups involving Family Fun Day. Please sign-up in advance. We thank you for your participation. A stack of Youth Group Calendars are always available on the free table in the church lobby.
