PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Your Vocation

God has chosen you. You may not always feel it. You may at times feel as though you're in the wrong place, the wrong job, or the wrong century. But God has chosen to create you here and now. God has given you gifts to face the present and to prepare for the glory of the future.

We often speak of vocations in terms of religious life. Truly, God chooses some people for special ministry. The Letter to the Hebrews speaks about the vocation of Old Testament priesthood as well as the priesthood of Jesus. "Every high priest is taken from among men," the letter says. It does not say, "Certain men decide to become high priests." Rather, "No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was."

Even Jesus did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest. Instead, God had him in mind with two prophecies from the Book of Psalms: "You are my son: this day I have begotten you;" and "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

It is often easier to see a vocation among religious men and women because their work is totally dedicated to God. But others also have a vocation—in the family, at work, and in society. God has chosen you. God has taken you from among others and placed you in the world now to proclaim the nearness of glory.

Fr. John

Volunteer Opportunity

Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours.” (St. Teresa of Avila, 16th century)

You are invited to serve as Christ did by joining fellow parishioners at Mary House meal kitchen, housed at St. Patrick's church and school in Providence. We will be sharing the love and compassion of Christ by serving meals and a friendly presence to those in need. Please contact Terry Novak if you are able to serve on any of the following dates. Terry will share specific information at that time. Email is preferred--

Outreach Ministry

The response to our request for socks, afghans and scarfs for the homeless and marginalized has been tremendous. Thank you to all those who contributed. Many items were without the givers names so we thank them for their generosity. Since this is an ongoing ministry, please consider donating white socks, hats, mittens and hand/ body warmers along with any gently used and washed afghans/ blankets. If you are cleaning out your closets, consider donating items no longer wanted.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Several parishioners have donated prayer shawls and mini prayer cloths. If you would like to have one of these comfort shawls/ prayer cloths, please call Carolyn (231-5864) and one will be left for you in the vestry.

The Office of Life & Family Ministry and R.I. Coalition Against Domestic Violence Invite you

November 4-10, 2018 marks National Vocation Awareness Week. Each year the Church sets this week aside “to promote vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.” Please pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood and religious life in the Diocese of Providence. If you are discerning priesthood and have questions, please contact Fr. Christopher Murphy at the Office of Vocations by phone at (401) 331-1316, by email at FatherCJM@gmail.com, or visit CatholicPriest.com.
