(Feast of the Ascension of the Lord)

June 2, 2019

Lord, hear my voice,
for I have called you!
Borrowed from Paul Turner

Gone, but Not Forgotten

We have different expressions we can use when we leave. “Good-bye” comes from a prayerful desire: “God be with you.” “Farewell” is a wish for good health. “So long” admits that time will pass and absence will be felt. “See you later” tries to soften the departure with the knowledge that those who are separating will be together again.

On Ascension Thursday we remembered the departure of Jesus from his earthly contact with his followers. He could have said “Good-bye” or “Farewell” if this were really the end. But instead he said, “I am with you always, until the end of the age.” This was better news than “See you later.” In leaving, Jesus said he was not really leaving. He would remain present at all times.

In this spirit we read confidently from the concluding chapter of the Book of Revelation. John hears a voice saying, “Behold, I am coming soon.” Jesus, who ascended but remained present in some mysterious way, announces his return. And the Church cannot wait. “The Spirit and the bride say, ‘Come.’ Let the hearer say, ‘Come.’ The one who gives this testimony says, ‘Yes, I am coming soon.’ Amen! Come, Lord Jesus.”

Jesus is ever present to us, yet we await the fullness of his coming. In the days before Pentecost, let us keep our hope alive, our confidence firm, and our voice strong. “Amen! Come, Lord Jesus.”

"We must faithfully keep what we have promised. If through human weakness we fail, we must always without delay arise again by means of holy penance, and give our attention to leading a good life and to dying a holy death. May the Father of all mercy, the Son by his holy passion, and the Holy Spirit, source of peace, sweetness and love, fill us with their consolation."

The Community Outreach Ministry

Is looking for children's clothing. As the hot weather approaches, most of you will be changing out your children's clothes for summer ones. If your children have outgrown their clothes, please consider donating them to the homeless shelters. Consider, too, donating a pair of socks and/or underwear for a child. Clothes must be washed and in good condition. Please leave bags of clothes in the vestry for pick up by Marge and Carolyn. We will run this summer clothing drive through the month of June. As disciples of Jesus, we should extend a helping hand to those less fortunate. The homeless and marginalized are always with us. Thank you for your past generosity.

Thank you for all of the kind words and offering of sympathy on the loss of my mother.
My family and I are truly grateful for your support at this difficult time.

Meditation for the Day--- SLOW DOWN

God can work through you better when you are not always hurrying. Go slowly, and quietly, from one duty to the next, taking time to rest and pray between.

Do not be too busy. Take everything in order. Venture often into the rest of God and you will find peace. All work that results from resting with God is good work. Claim the power to work miracles in human lives.

Know that you can do many things through your connection with God's Power.
