Spirit of God dwells within us!

Borrowed from Paul Turner

The Reason for Gifts

Look around your church and you will see many gifts. You will see those who sing and those who read, those who preach and those who greet. You will see some who feed the hungry and others who serve on committees. You will see some who decorate and others who converse. Some have a gift for leading prayer, for parenting children or for making people feel at home. Everybody has some gift.

Still, not all gifts are equal. Some people excel at their gifts. Others exercise them less capably. The quality of the gift is not that important. It is important to exercise the gift, whatever its extent may be. The use of our gifts releases the power of the Spirit.

St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians, “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.”

God gives gifts for a reason. They are meant to be nurtured and used. The gifts manifest the Spirit. When used properly, they draw attention to God who gives, not to the person who has received.

The manifold gifts within one community show the marvels of the Holy Spirit. When people share their gifts, they create a spirit of selflessness and inspire others to service. They help everyone appreciate the goodness of God, who gives even before we ask.

When people look at you, they also see gifts. For which gifts are you most grateful? How do you share them?

SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER!

But Jesus, the Son of God, loved us so much that he did the most unexpected thing: he freely chose to give up his life for our sake, so that we could be reunited with him. And that’s what love does. It drives us to the most surprising levels of generosity, service, and sacrifice. The God who is love—the God who was so passionately in love with us and so desired to be united to us—was even willing to lay down his life for us. As Saint Catherine of Siena once said, the nails could not have held Jesus to the cross if love had not held him there first.

We are looking for children's clothing. As the hot weather approaches, most of you will be changing out your children's clothes for summer ones. If your children have outgrown their clothes, please consider donating them to the homeless shelters. Consider, too, donating a pair of socks and/or underwear for a child. Clothes must be washed and in good condition. Please leave bags of clothes in the vestry for pick up by Marge and Carolyn. We will run this summer clothing drive through the month of June.

As disciples of Jesus, we should extend a helping hand to those less fortunate. The homeless and marginalized are always with us. Thank you for your past generosity.
