Our Oneness in the Lord

The Prophet Isaiah emphasizes that those who faithfully observe the Sabbath will be brought to the Lord's holy mountain. In God's house all are welcome to be faithful to Him.

In St Matthew's Gospel we encounter a Canaanite woman whose bold and courageous faith is affirmed by Jesus who heals her daughter.

In St. Luke's Gospel presented on the feast of the Assumption, Mary's song, the Magnificat, focuses upon liberation from social, personal, moral and economic oppression. "He has filled the hungry with good things...

He has lifted up the lowly..."

God offers the humble a special access to His gifts. God is depicted as mighty, holy, merciful, and in solidarity with the poor and suffering.

"Lord, grant us hearts contrite and humble. Listen to our wants; bring strength to our hearts and those we serve."

The SVDP Pantry is in need of the following:

SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED

We hope you are still enjoying your summer. However, the opening of school is just around the corner. Once again, your Sacred Heart Conference of The Society of St. Vincent dePaul would like to help our struggling families by providing their children with school supplies. We would like to provide a book bag containing the following items: pencils, pens, loose leaf paper, spiral bound notebooks, folders, composition books, rulers, crayons, colored pencils, glue, and pencil boxes. We especially need BOOK BAGS. As always, please know that we greatly appreciate your continued generosity and are blessed by your caring.

This back-to-school program in its 10th year has prepared hundreds of needy children for another year of learning.

Please note: Donations may be dropped off in the food bins at the back of the church, at the St. Vincent dePaul center, or pantry and should be received no later than, Sunday, August 27. Our projected numbers for year indicate a need for more secondary items and bags. We also need to supply for slightly more girls than boys.

Again, heart felt thanks for your contributions.

If you have any questions please call Sherry Papale at 609-261-0652.

Each year the Bishop seeks the support of all of the members of the Diocese to further the work of our ministries. Each of us has a vital part in all we do in Christ's name, and each of us can share in all we do with a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our single Act of Faith propels the works of love that build up our Church. You can make this happen with a gift to the ACA. Please take a moment and truly reflect on any help you can give. Many of you have already received a letter in the mail asking for your prayers and support for this Appeal. Pledge cards can also be found at all entrances to the Church. Healing the Wounds of Abortion
Rachel's Vineyard Post-Abortive Retreat

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warkiewicz @ 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

The Grapes of Wrath Project

by Deacon Jim Casa

There is still time to begin your reading of this summer's "read the book-see the movie" project and you are invited to begin your reading of John Steinbeck's epic novel, The Grapes of Wrath. It may reshape your understanding of patriotism.

For this week, let's consider the importance of the ultimate hero in The Grapes of Wrath, Ma Joad:

A determined and loving woman, Ma Joad emerges as the family's center of strength over the course of the novel as Pa Joad gradually becomes less effective as a leader and provider. Regardless of how bleak circumstances become, Ma Joad meets every obstacle unflinchingly. She may demonstrate this faculty best during the family's crossing of the California desert. She consistently proves to be the novel's strongest supporter of family and togetherness. With her indomitable nature, Ma Joad suggests that even the most horrible circumstances can be weathered with grace and dignity. The Joad family members stand as exemplary figures in their refusal to be broken by the circumstances that conspire against them. At every turn, Steinbeck seems intent on showing their dignity and honor; he emphasizes the importance of maintaining self-respect in order to survive spiritually. Steinbeck makes a clear connection in his novel between dignity and rage. As long as people maintain a sense of injustice—a sense of anger against those who seek to undercut their pride in themselves—they will never lose their dignity.

So, friends, continue your reading of The Grapes of Wrath and save the date, Friday evening - September 15 (7pm) - when we will gather to see John Ford's classic movie version (starring Henry Fonda) and discuss both novel and film. Look for updates about the novel in future Parish Bulletins.

OUR PROMISE TO PROTECT The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors. If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.
