March 31 – April 1, 2018
EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Risen Jesus-
How Great Thou Art!

St Augustine taught that the Easter Vigil is the mother of all vigils, the vigil from which all others get their name. We, the Church, gather with catechumens and candidates, who have prepared through heartfelt prayer and study to enter the Body of the Church. We gather with them to celebrate the Resurrection in the darkness of night, in the darkness of our sorrowful expectation of unending joy. We sing "Alleluia!" anticipating that holy sunrise, that blessed morn that changed all of history.

Death is transformed into life, sin into grace, woundedness into wholeness, tragedy into triumph, darkness into the light of glory.

As we participate in the Mass throughout this glorious Resurrection Day, confident of the presence of Jesus among us, may we sing His praises and bring His love and His peace to all the people we meet.

Easter Blessings to all!
