Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart Church,

I am very happy to inform you that the total amount of our Easter collection this year at Sacred Heart was $ 43,980.00

I am so truly grateful to all of you for your abundant generosity to our Parish. I would also like to thank all of those who made special donations to help decorate our Church this Easter.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to those who helped to make our Holy Week and Easter Sunday Liturgies so beautiful and prayerful- our Deacons and faithful members of our Parish Staff and so many dedicated volunteers - Altar Servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Music Ministers, Readers, Ushers, Collection Counters, those who helped to clean, prepare and decorate our Church and Auditorium. They have assisted all of us to joyfully celebrate Our Lord's resurrection from death so that we might share in His Spirit of new life.

On behalf of our parish community, may I extend a very heartfelt and loving welcome to all those who were fully initiated into the Church at the Easter Vigil and assure them of our continuing prayerful support.

A special word of thanks to the members of our R.C.I.A. Team for all their help in preparing our Candidates for full membership in our Church.

May the loving presence of our Risen Lord continue to dwell in your hearts and your homes. God bless you all.

Vocation Prayer Chalice

The Vocations Prayer Chalice is a wonderful form of prayer and devotion for our parish families. The Chalice reminds each host family that they share in the responsibility to pray for and foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

The purpose of the Vocations Prayer Chalice, a blessed chalice, is to provide a focal point of prayer. We are all aware of the need for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life.

Sometimes we forget just how powerful praying for an increase in vocations can be. The Second Vatican Council instructs us that it is the job of the laity to pray for and raise up vocations, and this was echoed by Pope John Paul II in many of his teachings.

How do we do this? It is easy. To learn more about the Vocation Prayer Chalice, please call Ann (609)-267-5836

Instructions

Place the Vocations Prayer Chalice in a place of honor in our home. Each day during the week it is in your home, use the chalice as a focal point for prayers (i.e. morning, bedtime or prayer before meals). Please remember that this is a Blessed Chalice and should not be used as a drinking cup.

Praise and Glory to The Triune God

In St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, the God who is three in one is vividly revealed. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus utters the great missionary challenge to the faithful to make disciples of all nations in the name of the Trinity.

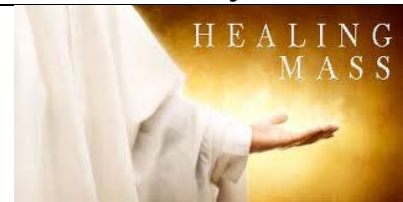

In the book of Deuteronomy, we see in Moses' words the different manifestations of God at work among the chosen people. Moses, a great leader, demonstrated meekness combined with strength, balance between gentleness and firmness. We, too, must humbly accept our talents as gifts from God. We are called to speak out for justice, to care for the poor, the sick, the needy, and the oppressed.

The SVDP Pantry is in need of the following:

CANNED SOUPS, canned vegetables, peanut butter and jelly, meal in a can, baked beans, shelf-stable milk, and tea bags.

If you would like to make a monetary donation please make checks payable to:

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT de PAUL
Thank you!

EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Our fall Bible study will be different from past ones. Instead of a commentary and study guide we'll be using a single text book, John Kaltner's Reading the Old Testament Anew: Biblical Perspectives on Today's Issues. It is 256 pages of text, consisting of an introduction and six chapters. Each runs about 35-40 pages in length. The book provides an overview of the Old Testament's perspectives on a number of topics that are of interest to many of its modern readers. It does this by considering biblical passages that are related to each of the themes and by explaining how scholars have attempted to understand and interpret those texts. The topics treated are creation, covenant, liberation, the human condition, the other, and social justice. The introduction presents some general background information on the OT – what it is, its contents, the contexts from which it emerged and to which it responded, and the various ways it has been read and interpreted. There are discussion questions in the margins throughout the text and further reflection questions at the end of each chapter.

We will not be following previous formats, however, as there simply is too much material to read each week prior to class. Instead, participants in this Bible study will have to obtain a copy of the book ahead of time – preferably by the end of June – so as to be able to read it through in advance of the beginning of classes and then just reviewing what has been studied before each weekly class.

The book sells for just under $30 if purchased directly from the publisher, Anselm Academic. If we qualify for a group rate, the publisher will give us a 15% discount and we're hoping for reduction or waiver of shipping and handling charges. Most likely, however, even with these savings the total purchase price will be around $30 if we deal directly with the publisher. Competitive prices could be available through on-line suppliers.

Our facilitator is John Madden, M.A. in Theology and Ministry. Anyone desiring to attend should contact John at (609) 261-3642 or ijnmadden@comcast.net not later than June 14, 2018 and also should inform him if you want to purchase the book through him or if you plan to obtain it on your own.
