Catholic Godparents are required to complete an Eligibility Certificate and have the certificates signed by the pastor of the parish where they are currently registered and practicing their faith.

We offer a Baptismal Prep Class for parents as a way of preparing them for their child's journey of faith. Classes are scheduled for the first Wednesday of every month at 7:30pm. Please contact the Parish Secretary to register.

“Who is this man?”

In today’s Gospel, Jesus is rejected by His hometown residents. We must not ignore His humanity for this rejection truly distressed Him and limited His ability “to perform any mighty deed there”.

As in the reading from Ezekiel, God does not coerce us into listening to His prophets. He does, however, continue to send messengers into our midst. Jesus is present in our ordinary, everyday lives. Quite often, He is a camouflaged guest present when we welcome a stranger.

“...The face of God surrounds us every day in the eyes of those who need our help and seek our love and friendship. God lives and breathes today in those who are our neighbors, and it is up to us to recognize the face of God as we respond to their needs.”

The SVDP Pantry is in need of the following:

CANNED SOUPS, Tuna, Bathroom Tissue, Canned Vegetables, Peanut Butter and Jelly, Meal in a can, and Shelf-Stable milk.

Prayer to Saint Joseph to Know One's Vocation

O Great Saint Joseph, you were completely obedient to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Obtain for me the grace to know the state of life that God in His providence has chosen for me. Since my happiness on earth, and perhaps even my final happiness in heaven, depends on this choice, let me not be deceived in making it.

Obtain for me the light to know God's will, to carry it out faithfully, and to choose the vocation which will lead me to a happy eternity.

The Circle Project

Hosted by Deacon Jim Casa

This has been a hot summer so far and this year's Sacred Heart summer 'read the book - see the movie' project (The Circle by Dave Eggers) is a hot page turner for sure. It is a roller coaster of intrigue and high tech nuance. The Circle is surely a modern cautionary tale for our modern times.

In each of these Circle Project updates, we will look at what the reviewers have said about this very important story.

From the Los Angeles Times:

"The ideas behind The Circle are compelling and deeply contemporary. [Eggers is] saying something foreboding about America's place in the world: We have traded making physical things for glossy, meaningless online culture that leaves us vulnerable to those who see that information - in the form of data, video feeds, or our own consumer desires - as power."

The morality of this timely story is profound. Quickly, begin your reading of Dave Egger's The Circle. We will gather on September 14 (at 7pm) to watch the film adaptation of The Circle (starring Academy Award winning actor, Tom Hanks and Emma Watson from Harry Potter fame). A word of consideration, The Circle was published in 2013 and as such, is a very modern novel that features a few adult situation moments in the story and has some random use of strong language. Don't let that dissuade you. Please don't.

Look for updates in Bulletins throughout the summer.

Happy reading, my friends.

Knowing everything is better."

Good News Reflection

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 8, 2018

Ezekiel 2:2-5

Ps 123:1-4

2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Mark 6:1-6

Rejected, misunderstood, disbelieved

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, we see the painful truth of what happens when we share our faith with those who knew us before we became alive in our faith.

Like Jesus, we are rejected, misunderstood, and disbelieved by people who don't understand why we changed. They feel threatened by our example; they don't want to consider their own need to change. We sound like fanatics to them, and they use this as an excuse to remain uninfluenced by our testimony.

Jesus changed after he quit living an ordinary life in an ordinary town with an ordinary job to begin a ministry that would instigate persecution, and he invited everyone to follow his example. How crazy does that sound?

Making matters worse, he was now spending all of his time trying to change the status quo of everyone's normal life and their normal ways of relating to others and their normal attitudes about religion -- even affecting the status quo of those who did not want to follow him and become like him.

People don't like to be challenged, especially when it means giving up what's familiar and comfortable. However, this is not a reason for us to keep silent. We have been called by Christ to share the good news about him. We must make it known that conversion is important, or else we are sinning against him and against those who need to learn more about him.

We fulfill this mission by sharing our personal conversion stories and our spiritual insights, and especially by making this an invitation rather than by demanding that others change.

If you're being rejected because of this, remember that Jesus understands how you feel. Let the sting of their rejection be replaced by an awareness that God is very pleased with you.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

In what ways has Jesus changed your life? Who are the people that misunderstand these changes? Now list those who do understand you: What can you do to enjoy their company more often?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

When have you been rejected because of your spiritual growth? What have you learned about how to lovingly respond to their objections? What are your frustrations in doing this? Have you ever walked away like Jesus did when he left his hometown?
