ATTN: RE Parents/Guardians: If you are not receiving emails containing announcements, memos, and more, you are not on our email list! Please email Jesse Read at jread@hbgdiocese.org to be included in our distribution.

Winterfest Christmas Bazaar

Plan to attend the bazaar on December 1 from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and finish your Christmas shopping early! There will be over 30 vendors offering a wide variety of quality craft goods as well as some nationally known products. Come for breakfast and stay for lunch. Door prizes will be called every half hour. Skip your holiday baking and buy cookies at the Cookie Walk. Take a chance at winning one of many great raffle prizes. Tickets will be available for purchase that day. If you still have your raffle tickets from last week's bulletin, you can bring those tickets with you and drop them in the box.

Bakers Needed!

Love to bake at Christmas but don't know what to do with all those sweets? Donate your cookies to the Cookie Walk! Call Sandy Bladen 717-476-4798. Or, call Chris O'Brien 717-479-1277 if you enjoy baking cakes and other goodies.

Donations are still gratefully accepted!

We can still use donations of merchandise or gift cards for the raffle or door prizes call Rosemary Lowas 717-825-1922

A special thanks to Rosie's Restaurant for sponsoring an ad in our weekly bulletin. Please remember to support our weekly sponsors.

All Are Invited To Make An Angel! Sacred Heart Basilica is purchasing new Glory & Praise hymnals. This angel-making event will allow us to repurpose our old Glory & Praise hymnals, which brought the gift of song to our hearts at Mass, into an angel to brighten your home. This would be a great family activity! The event is being held on Sunday, November 25 at the Msgr. George W. Rost Social Hall at Sacred Heart Basilica, 55 Basilica Drive, Hanover. There will be three class times 1:00, 2:00 and 3:00 p.m. The approximate time to make an angel is 1-2 hours. Cost is $15.00 per angel (includes all supplies). Please RSVP by Sunday, November 18 by calling Jody at 717-524-8684 or emailing her at songbird62@embarqmail.com. Please specify the number of angels you would like to make and the preferred class time.

Door to Bethlehem - This Advent, open the door to Christ by going on a journey with Mary and Joseph. Based on the tradition of Las Posadas, join Mary and Joseph as they search for shelter on their way to Bethlehem. Tours will be held on December 7 and 8 from 4:00 to 6:30 p.m. with a new tour beginning every 15 minutes. Cost: $6.00 per person, FREE for children 6 and under. Buy tickets online at setonshrine.org/door-to-bethlehem.

The second collection today will be for the Diocesan-wide Matthew 25 collection which supports ministries which help the most vulnerable in our communities with basic needs of food, clothing and shelter. 25% of what you give remains in our parish to help our ministries complete their work. Please review the brochures from the bulletin last week for more information.

Daily Mass on days with Inclement Weather

With the onset of the Winter Season, we may be experiencing mornings when driving conditions are hazardous. This can often lead us to question if Daily Mass will be celebrated at the church. To make things easier for everyone, we will follow this guideline: We will follow Conewago Valley School District on the television announcements. If there is a Delay or a Closing DUE TO WEATHER, we will NOT have morning Mass. Hopefully the winter season will be nice to us!

“The Forty Hours”

A Time of Spiritual Opportunity

“The Forty Hours” is a devotion aimed at increasing our appreciation...our love...our knowledge of the Blessed Sacrament. The devotion itself covers a period of approximately forty hours. Why forty hours? No one really knows. Generally, it is believed that the devotion was combined with the ceremonies of Holy Week to commemorate the forty hours our Divine Lord was buried. The important thing is that throughout the devotion we are encouraged to take personal inventory of our relationship with Christ in the Holy Eucharist...to re-evaluate the importance of the Holy Eucharist in our daily lives. This is what counts most.

During “The Forty Hours”...

Talk things over with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Don't forget - His love for you exceeds your ability to understand it. He realizes how difficult it is for you to love the Blessed Sacrament as much as you would like. He knows how distracted you are with the problems of your daily life. He knows how material your life must be. He knows, too, how spiritual things have a way of getting lost in the shuffle. He understands! All he asks is that you keep trying...trying to develop into a better Christian ...trying to improve your relations with Him. It's hard work, but no work is more rewarding. The key word is “try.” During “The Forty Hours” try harder than ever before to get even closer to Christ. Talk with Him in the Blessed Sacrament. He knows your goals...your shortcomings. Talk them over with Him.

In Gratitude

Thank you, Father, for having created us and given us to each other in the human family. Thank you for being with us in all our joys and sorrows, for your comfort in our sadness, your companionship in our loneliness. Thank you for yesterday, today, tomorrow and for the whole of our lives. Thank you for friends, for health and for grace. May we live this and every day conscious of all that has been given to us.
