

* The St. Cyril Mother's Day Out/Pre-school is designed to provide a loving Christian environment where pre-schoolers are encouraged to participate in creative learning experiences.

* The program provides a safe and nurturing environment that promotes the physical, social, emotional, and cognitive development of young children.

* An age-appropriate curriculum includes religious stories and values, free play, development of gross and fine motor skills, creative art, music, number concepts, and language arts in a non-pressured setting.

* A kindergarten readiness class is offered to help four-year-olds who will enter school in the fall of 2018

* The Director is Meegan Dunlap.
