Help Wanted!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults reminds us that “The initiation of catechumens is a gradual process that takes place within the community of the faithful.” Therefore, the work of initiation is really the work of the entire parish community. Because of this, there is generally a RCIA Team that assists in the instruction and guidance of those wishing to join the Church. An ideal team member would include:

- someone who can help with catechetical aspects of the Christian initiation process
- someone who is knowledgeable about the liturgical life of the Church
- someone who can help the participants develop their personal prayer life and discern the path God puts before them
- someone who can build a sense of community within the group
- someone who can introduce participants to opportunities for participating in works of charity in the parish and community
- someone who will keep the entire parish involved in the process
