The Transfiguration of the Lord

August 6, 2017

The heavens proclaim his justice; all peoples see his glory.

— Psalm 97:6

EYEWITNESSES

Today, the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, is a day of eyewitness accounts. The first, a vision reported by the prophet Daniel, was well known to Jesus and his apostles. The vision account was written in quite mystical and figurative language. It is a vision of heaven, powerful and memorable. There are flames of fire, burning wheels, the Ancient One, and a Son of Man. Clearly, Daniel saw something. But was it a dream? Was it real? Was it merely a clever myth? Peter wants no such confusion about his vision! We are told in Matthew's Gospel what he and his friends James and John saw when they went up on the mountain with Jesus one day. Jesus warned the three witnesses to tell no one until "the Son of Man has been raised from the dead" (Matthew 17:9). Lest readers of one of the Gospels discount the story or simply write it off as a pious myth, Peter gives his own account of the Transfiguration of Jesus in his second letter to the church. He writes with authority, as an eyewitness. He reports this message from God concerning Jesus: "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased," and he assures us that the message is "altogether reliable" (2 Peter 1:17, 19).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I saw one like a Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven (Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14).

Psalm — The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth (Psalm 97).

Second Reading — Be attentive to the prophetic message, as to a lamp shining in a dark place (2 Peter 1:16-19).

Gospel — Jesus was transfigured, and his clothes became white as light (Matthew 17:1-9).

In Our Diocese

Catholic Home Missions Appeal Strengthening the Church at Home

Next week, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the US are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

WEDNESDAY MORNING FAITH FORMATION BOOK STUDY GROUP

If you like to read (and who doesn't?) and are interested in learning about God's Covenant Love in Scripture (and who isn't?) – come join us in a relaxed study of the wonderful book A FATHER WHO KEEPS HIS PROMISES, by Scott Hahn. This book masterfully paints the big picture of God's covenant love in salvation history and reveals God's plan for humanity beginning with creation, continuing through the generations to the coming of Christ and the birth of our Church. Along the way we'll see how we, too, can trust God to keep his fatherly promises in our own lives. Anna Styn and Gina Gutierrez will facilitate the group at St. Anne's Catholic Church on Wednesday mornings at 9:30 beginning September 6th. The book is available on Amazon.com. For more information or for help with ordering the book, please contact Anna Styn at (501) 658-6250
