Bible Studies on the Horizon

Great Adventure Bible Study

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom

Thursdays 9:30-11:45 a.m.; FFC Room 211
(fellowship at 9:00 a.m.) Starting April 12, 2018

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is a Catholic Bible study that brings the history of Christ to life through Matthew's Gospel. You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven.

If you would like to attend any of the above Bible studies, you may order your book online at www.ascensionpress.com and have it shipped to your home for your convenience. For more information, please call the church office at 225.665.5359.

Great Adventure Bible Timeline:

The Story of Salvation

Mondays 12:30-2:45 p.m. (fellowship at noon)

starting April 19, 2018

in the Faith Formation Center; Room 211

You Can Understand the Bible! Reading the Bible should bring us close to Christ, but understanding it is often difficult. The good news is that you can understand the Bible and The Bible Timeline makes it easy. The Bible Timeline is a Catholic Bible study that can help anyone to make sense of the Bible and experience the life-changing power of God's Word. The study takes you on a journey through the entire Bible and brings you deep into each period of salvation history so that you can discover the amazing story woven throughout all of Scripture. The Bible Timeline has helped hundreds of thousands of people to have a better understanding of the Bible and a deeper relationship with Christ, and it will help you too.

Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Passion Sunday/Holy Week

This Sunday known popularly as Palm Sunday and “officially,” as Passion Sunday begins the most solemn time of the Church Year. We will begin this Sunday with the blessing of palms, and as we process into church we will remember Christ’s triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

We will move through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with days of preparation. They will be days of preparation in many ways. The church environment will be prepared for the Triduum which will begin later in the week, our Elect and Candidates for Full Communion will complete their final preparations to be received into the Church, and we will complete our own personal and spiritual preparation to enter into the Lord’s Triduum.

The Sacred Triduum will begin Holy Thursday in the evening at seven o’clock with the Liturgy of the Lord’s Supper. The Eucharist of the Lord’s Supper, will also include the washing of feet of representatives of the parish. At the end of the Eucharist, we will process with the remaining Communion to the place of repose where the Communion, to be distributed at the solemn services Good Friday, will be placed for private prayer and adoration until 9:00 at night.

The Sacred Triduum will continue on Good Friday, with the Solemn Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion at 3:00 p.m. At this service we will proclaim the Passion of the Lord, have Adoration of the Cross, the Solemn Prayers, joining in prayer for each other and the world as Our Lord prayed from His cross. The service will conclude with Communion which was consecrated the evening before. Stations of the Cross will be prayed in the evening at 7:00 p.m. as a type of Evening Prayer.

The Easter Triduum continues Holy Saturday evening at eight o’clock. The service begins outside the church with the Blessing of the New Fire and the Easter Candle. As we process into the church, the candles of the congregation will be lit from the Easter Candle. When all are in the church with lit candles, the Easter Proclamation will be sung, and we will read from the Scriptures of the major events which bring us to this evening. Finally, the Alleluia will be sung and the lights turned on, and the beautifully decorated church will be a worthy place for the Easter Gospel to be proclaimed. After the homily, we will baptize our Elect and then confirm both them and the Candidates for Full Communion. Then we continue in celebration of the Easter Eucharist. There will be a reception following the Easter Vigil in the parish hall to share fellowship with our newly received parishioners.

The Sacred Triduum will continue Easter Sunday with the celebration of the Eucharist Sunday morning at seven, nine and eleven o’clock here, and at nine o’clock in the mission chapel. The Sacred Triduum comes to its conclusion with Evening Prayer in the Adoration Chapel at six o’clock in the evening. There will be no Evening Eucharist on Easter Sunday. Following Evening Prayer, Perpetual Adoration will resume.

I think it is important to call to everyone’s attention the idea of sacred silence. The church fathers such as St. Augustine, St. Ambrose, and other early Christian writers speak of the Triduum as a time when the whole world quietly mourns the death of the Savior and awaits the Resurrection. For this reason, once the Triduum begins Holy Thursday evening, no other services or sacraments are scheduled in the main church other than Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. The other Sacraments and Sacramentals such as Communion to the Sick, Reconciliation, and Anointing of the Sick are usually only celebrated during the Triduum in emergencies – if a person is near death.

It is good that we try, in the midst of our activity, to stay as recollected as we can, and remember in prayer, when we may have a quiet moment to ourselves, those who are on the Triduum Journey with us, especially our Elect and Candidates for Full Communion. If you can, it would be nice to get cards for those whose names you received at the beginning of Lent to pray for. Individual photographs of our Elect are in the Church foyer so you can associate names and faces.

This Lent has been a good journey and I feel blessed for having made it with you. It seems like we were just receiving ashes last week. Thanks for your prayerful support, both personally and for the parish. Next Sunday we begin the 50 days of Easter which will culminate with the celebration of Pentecost, the Birthday of the Church, our shared birthday and the “Grill will be on for you.” It is always good to journey together, not only in Lent, but throughout the year. Love,

The Divine Mercy Novena begins here at ICC on Good Friday, March 30, 2018 at 5 p.m. in the Adoration Chapel. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. We will continue the novena every evening leading up to the Feast of Divine Mercy on Sunday, April 8.

If you've been following Pope Francis, you no doubt are aware of his strong emphasis on mercy since becoming pope. During one of his homilies, Pope Francis said, "it is not easy to entrust oneself to God's mercy, because it is an abyss beyond our comprehension. But we must!" This reflects directly on the words of Christ regarding his abyss of mercy which he gave to Faustina saying, "The greater the misery of a soul, the greater its right to my mercy; [urge] all souls to trust in the unfathomable abyss of my mercy, because I want to save them all. On the cross, the fountain of My mercy was wide opened by the lance for all souls--no one have I excluded!" (Notebook III item 1182).

As Pope Francis says God's mercy is indeed an abyss beyond our understanding and it is God's unfathomable mercy that Pope Francis is trying to reach souls through. Pope Francis said, "I see the church as a field hospital after battle. It is useless to ask a seriously injured person if he has high cholesterol and about the level of his blood sugars! You have to heal his wounds. Then we can talk about everything else." Mercy is, after all, about meeting a person where they are at – wounds and all, just as Christ meets us where we are at.

As we approach Easter, we hear the term “Triduum.” What does this mean?

Triduum (a Latin word that basically means three days) is a time frequently chosen for prayer or other devotional practices. Like its cousin, the novena, which recalls the nine days that the disciples and the Blessed Virgin Mary spent in prayer between Ascension Thursday and Pentecost Sunday, every triduum recalls the three days of Christ’s Passion and Resurrection. The form of prayer or devotion depends upon the occasion or purpose of the triduum. The three days usually precede some feast, and the feast then determines the choice of the spiritual exercises.

The best-known triduum is the Paschal or Easter Triduum, which begins with the Mass of the Lord’s Supper on the evening of Holy Thursday and continues until the start of evening prayer on Easter Sunday. The Days of the Paschal Triduum are:

- Holy Thursday: Celebration of the Mass of the Lord’s Supper
- Good Friday: Commemoration of Christ’s Passion and Death
- Holy Saturday: Preparation for the Resurrection of the Lord
- Easter Sunday: The Resurrection of Christ

Other triduums include devotions related to the feast of the Ascension and Pentecost. There is also Church authorization for triduums in honor of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Eucharist, and St. Joseph.
