Thank you!

Our blood drive on June 24th was a huge success thanks to the wonderful parishioners at Immaculate Conception! We normally average between 35-40 units at our blood drives. That Sunday we had 82 people try to give and collected 66 units. (The difference is probably low iron levels in some people.) Thank you so much for coming and helping those in need in our community. Almost 200 people were helped by our blood drive.

Now that we did so well, we need to keep it up. There is always a need for blood. Our next blood drive will be Sunday, October 7 from 8 a.m.-1 p.m.. Hope to see you then!

Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Ordinary Time Budgets

As we celebrate this Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel Sunday speaks of Jesus sending out his disciples two by two. He told them not to carry any money in their belts. They trusted in Providence, carried out their mission and returned to him all excited. We also trust in Providence, but that does not mean we have no budgets in the parish. We trust that Providence and the Stewardship of parishioners will help us meet it. Our fiscal year runs from July 1 through June 30, and we thought this would be a good time to share the parish budget with you. Stewardship comes from grateful hearts, not budget needs, but at the same time we like to let you know how the parish is doing financially.

To the right column are three columns: the first, listing line items; the second, last year's budget; and the third, this year's budget. While the budget has more detailed line items, we grouped some together to make the budget fit on one page.

The General Receipts (Income) line items are pretty much self-explanatory. Other earnings would be sacramental offerings, Diocesan collections retained, etc. Extraordinary Receipts are more or less "in and out" items such as collections taken for the missions, income from Religious Ed, money received from our savings accounts to pay for building programs and other expenses. These items are not true "income" as we understand the word.

Under Expenditures, we have salaries (clergy salaries are priests, deacons and replacement help.) and other expenses. Contracted services include maintenance on air conditioning systems, computers, etc.

Parish Share is the Diocesan tax which is based on a three year average of parish income. It helps support the Diocese which in turn provides services for us on different levels.

Pastoral Services are expenses incurred with Religious Ed, RCIA, Adult Formation, Youth Ministry, Social Responsibility, Sunday Nursery, Receptions, Socials, Outreach and the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.

Capital Expenses are usually associated with new things on campus, such as work on the pavilion, Faith Formation Center and additions to facilities on campus. The extraordinary expenses pretty much correspond to Extraordinary Income above. Lower receipts and expenses for the new fiscal year (2018-2019) reflect the income level of many after the flood of August 2016.

We are doing well. I thank you for your Stewardship of Finance which comes from grateful hearts. Let us thank the good Lord who accompanies us through life. Love,

Each week during the next few months, we will be sharing the R.C.I.A. experiences and stories of our new Catholics who joined the Church this Easter as well as comments from their sponsors.

I had always planned on becoming Catholic at some point in my life just not really sure when I was ever going to actually commit. Mostly it was just because my husband is Catholic, we were married in the Catholic Church, our daughter was baptized as an infant in the Catholic Church, and so I needed to do my duty and “make it official” to everyone. At least that what I thought. Throughout this journey, there are so many things that God has opened my eyes to in my life, family, and marriage. Working a full 180°, I thought we were doing great, but boy was I wrong. Oh, how I have fallen short! I have never felt so deeply passionate about my faith as I do now. It’s like I’ve unlocked a secret tunnel in Super Mario Brothers when I was a child and ran to tell everyone. Seriously, the night of the Easter Vigil was an experience I can only hope and pray everyone can have for themselves. The love, grace, freedom, and communion that I felt walking out of church that night was such an overwhelming power that all I could do was throw my arms in the air and say, “Thank You, Jesus!” Somehow HE chose me? I could go on and on but will end on this. Not ever did I think I would be tested in so many ways. God seriously asked me a question I have NEVER been able to answer, and by giving that up to Him, I did it, and let me tell you. God is good. He showed me grace and favor and was pleased. I can’t wait to grow and get more involved with our Church, it feels like home—being home.

—Camille Lane

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or know of someone who is, contact Tammy Jackson at 665.9631.

Parish School of Religion

Registration for the 2018-2019 school year continues ($10 late fee will be applied). Registration forms may be picked up at the Faith Formation Center, or you can print them from our website at <http://www.icc-msh.org/religious-education>.

Please register ASAP so that we may have enough catechists and have books/materials ordered in time. This will help the opening week of class operate smoothly. For more information, contact 225.665.5926.

During the month of July, we are busy getting materials and rooms ready for the start of the new school year so our office hours vary. We are usually in the office on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.. On other days, please call before coming.

Parents of students entering the first grade in the fall are asked to register their child(ren) for religion classes as soon as possible.

All children must attend first grade religion classes in order to be able to register for second grade to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist. A copy of your child’s baptism certificate is needed when you register.

CHURCH SANCTUARY LAMP: 07/15/18—07/21/18

Burns in memory of LYNWOOD STAFFORD, JR.

ADORATION CHAPEL LIGHT: 07/15/18—07/21/18

Burns in memory of THOMAS MAHER.

We express our sympathy and prayers to Angela Hood on the death of her husband, DOUGLAS "DOUG" HOOD; to Ellis James, Paul Lewis, and Joni Hebert on the death of their daughter, wife and sister, PAMELA "PAM" LEWIS; to Toby Dodson, Lisa and Mandi Brown, and Roxanne Disedare on the death of their father, GARY DODSON; to Linda Johnson on the death of her husband, GRANT JOHNSON; to Mark Newcomb on the death of his mother, SYBIL LEBLANC NEWCOMB; and to Jody Dixon on the death of her mother, MARIA TORRES.

In Matthew 23:9, Jesus says "Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven." How then can we call our priests "father?"

When Jesus said call no one "father" except God in heaven, He did not mean this literally. Jesus' point was that we must not confuse the type of fatherhood God has (which is ultimate and unlimited) with other forms of fatherhood (which are limited and conditional). Otherwise, we could not call our biological father by that name, which would be absurd. Not to be able to use the biological term "father" would erase the earthly analogy of God's divine fatherhood.

Limiting the use of "father" would also contradict many scriptural passages. "Honor your father and your mother" (Commandment #4). Jesus criticized the Pharisees and scribes for not honoring their "fathers" and mothers in Mark 7:11-12. Furthermore, calling spiritual leaders "father" was common in the early church communities. St. Stephen addresses "My brothers and fathers" (Acts 7:2). St. Paul uses the same terms in Acts 22:1. And, St. Paul states "I became your father in Christ Jesus through the Gospel" (1 Cor 4:15). St. Paul calls himself "father" because he recognized his cooperation with God in leading the spiritual life of the communities entrusted to him.

Jesus uses this type of language to make a point in a striking, memorable way. Both biological fathers and spiritual fathers bear the authority of God and participate in the one Fatherhood of God. Biological fathers are responsible for raising their biological children; spiritual fathers (our priests) are responsible for raising their spiritual children.
