Prayer for A New School Year

God of wisdom and might,
we praise you for
the wonder of our being,
for mind, body and spirit.
Be with our children
as they begin a new school year.
Bless them and their teachers and staff. Give them strength and grace as their bodies grow;
wisdom and knowledge to their minds
as they search for understanding;
and peace and zeal to their hearts.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Ordinary Time Vocations

As we continue through Ordinary Time, the Lord begins his beautiful teaching that he is the Bread of Life and whoever comes to him will never hunger, and whoever believes in him will never thirst. They are beautiful words but only the beginning of a teaching which we will continue to hear in the coming weeks.

As we slowly prepare to move into another school year, we have good news to share with the parish. On October 13/14, Deacon John will share his last weekend of Internship with us and return to Notre Dame for his last year in the seminary. Earlier in August, Seminarian Kolbe David, son of Reggie and Sandra David of our parish, will enter St. Joseph Seminary in Covington for his first year in the college seminary. Upon the recommendation of Fr. Andrew Merrick, Vocation Director, and those who work with him. Kolbe met with Bishop Muench last month and was accepted into the seminary to study for the Diocese of Baton Rouge. Deacon John said that after all these years he remembers like yesterday when Bishop Muench shook his hand and told him he was accepted. We wish both Deacon John and Kolbe God's every blessing as they continue on their journey. Let us keep Fr. Andrew, all our seminarians, and increased vocations to the priesthood in our prayers.

We received a nice note from Alec Campbell which I would like to share with you.

“As I finish up my summer assignment and look forward to returning to my studies in the fall, I had asked Father Frank if I could write a little blurb in the Parish Bulletin to express my thanks and gratitude. To Fr. Frank, Fr. Raj, and the Deacons, Thank you for your mentorship! I also want to thank you for the trust you placed in me with the various ministries I had opportunities to work with.

I have been blest by the parish you serve, and in a special way I will hold Immaculate Conception Parish in my daily prayers as you have been my first experience of what it will be like working in a parish as a deacon. Gwen, Tammy, and Kevin, thank you for your fellowship and the expertise that you shared with me and my family over the summer, I really hope that we get more opportunities in the future to collaborate. The ministries God has entrusted to your care will be in my prayers. Lastly but certainly not least to the parishioners of Immaculate Conception, thank you for the amazing welcome and hospitality that my family and I have experienced this summer. I have enjoyed getting to know a number of you and I want to say thanks for sharing your parish with me over the last several weeks. If I might be so bold as to ask you to continue to pray for me and my brother candidates as we strive to follow God's Call in our lives. The joy you have as a parish and the community that you have built is infectious, my prayer for you and your families is to continue to be God's Servants and build the Kingdom here on Earth.

PAX CHRISTI”

Alec Campbell

Deacon to Be (Class of 2020)

We join in wishing Alec all the best and thank him for the teaching ministries he exercised here with us this summer, wishing him and his family all the best as they continue their journey toward the Permanent Diaconate.

As announced last week, I will be leading a pilgrimage group to France June 12-22. We will be spending time in Lourdes, Nevers, Ars, Paris, Lisieux, and Normandy. While most sites on this list are obviously religious sites since it is a pilgrimage, there will also be time to visit sites of interest to tourists. Just about every place we will be going I have visited over the years, and I will be happy to assist however I can. The company is very professional however, and I don't see myself being that needed as they are very capable. There will be an orientation meeting on Wednesday, August 8 in the large hall for those who may be interested in asking questions and getting more information about the pilgrimage. So that they may be prepared with materials, etc., they ask that you RSVP if you wish to attend. You can RSVP by telephoning 337-291-1933, 877-454-7469 or by checking out their web site, www.holytravels.org. Presently 42 have called to come to the meeting.

As we prepare for another ministry year, let us keep one another in our prayers. Love,

Father Frank

Stump the Deacon!

Why are priests now wearing green vestments? What does green symbolize?

The Church is very “sensual” in that it wants to engage all of our senses. The different colors help us on our journey to Christ and our ultimate goal of heaven.

Green vestments are worn throughout the year during what is called “Ordinary Time”. This includes most of the days throughout the year except for special feast days, Good Friday, and the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter.

Green symbolizes life and hope, the life that we desire with Christ in heaven and the hope that God will give us the grace to attain it. White represents purity, light, and joy, and is worn during the Easter and Christmas seasons, on feasts dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and to the angels and saints that are not martyrs. Purple symbolizes solemnity, preparation, and penance and is worn during Lent and Advent. Red vestments have several symbolic meanings: blood shed for the faith, and the fire of the Holy Spirit. Red is worn on Palm Sunday, Good Friday, and the feast days of martyrs (blood), and Pentecost (the fire of the Holy Spirit. For more information, you might want to google: <https://www.uscatholic.org/articles/201701/why-do-priests-wear-green-ordinary-time-30900>.

Sincere Gratitude—I would like to express my thanks to everyone who participated in the funeral Mass of my husband, Doug Hood. The music was absolutely beautiful. Father Raj, I want to thank you for giving Father Cleo Milano the opportunity to say the Mass for Doug. My heart was overwhelmed. Also, Father Raj, I want to thank you for coming to visit Doug on several occasions; it made him feel really good. Also, thank you for coming to the cemetery.

A Meditation Before the Blessed Sacrament

Have you no joys to tell Me? Why not confide to Me your pleasures? Tell Me what has happened since yesterday to console you, to make you look happy, to give you joy. An unexpected visit has done you good; a fear has been suddenly dispelled; you have met with unlooked-for success; you have received some mark of affection—a letter, a present; some trial has left you stronger than you supposed. All these things, My child, I obtained for you.

Prayerfully consider an hour with Jesus especially as a substitute adorer.
