That Christians may live the Gospel, giving witness to faith, honesty, and love of neighbor.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Registration 2016 - 2017 Religious Education Program

We hope you are all enjoying these summer months with your families. As you all know, the preparation for the 2016-17 Religious Ed year is currently underway. Therefore, we are sending this reminder to those who have not registered as of yet. We ask that you please do so as soon as possible. There are multiple ways that you can re-register or obtain forms:

- You may pick up a form in the back of the church where all the resource materials are located and mail it into our office with your payment.
- You can download a form from our parish website and mail it in with your payment.
- You can come to our office in the parish center to re-register or drop off a registration form with your payment. We are accepting applications Monday-Friday between 10:00 am and 3:00 pm.

Please note that if your family has not re-registered by the end of August, we cannot guarantee that your child will be on the list for Opening Day.

Please remember that if your family is experiencing a financial hardship, come and either speak with us or write us a letter when you re-register, so that we may make arrangements. No child will ever be kept from Religious Education due to a family's inability to pay.

Enjoy the rest of the summer and we look forward to seeing everyone soon!

God Bless,
Sr. Rose

Catechists and Teen Aides (HS) are needed especially for Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 4:30 to 6:00 pm. Please call Sr. Rose as soon as possible if you are interested in finding out more --- 782-7420.

Happiness without Religion?

When: Saturday, September 10
Time: 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm
Where: The Catholic Center at NYU
238 Thompson St
New York, NY 10012

Can we be happy without religion? On Saturday, September 10th at the Catholic Center at NYU, the Thomistic Institute and the University of Chicago's Virtue, Happiness, and the Meaning of Life Project will put on a discussion entitled "Happiness without Religion? A Philosophical Debate."

The event is free and open to the public. Registration, however, is required; pre-register online at www.thomisticinstitute.org for speedy check-in. Walk-ins are welcome, but must register at the door.

Contact: Peter Blair, 202-495-3863, pblair@dhs.edu.

Saint of the Week

St. Hyacinth
August 17

Hyacinth was a Pole, born of noble Christian parents at the villa of Kamin in the bishopric of Breslau. He was enrolled among the canons of Cracow and excelled them all in his singularly devout way of life and in his learning. At Rome, he was received into the Order of Preachers by its founder, St. Dominic; and to the end of his days, his virginity intact, he held to the perfect rule of life which he had learned from St. Dominic. He was sent back to his own country and built six monasteries of his Order.

It is unbelievable how much he accomplished by preaching the word of God and by the innocence of his life, made illustrious by numerous miracles. Among these is the particularly remarkable miracle: he crossed over the river Vistula near Visograd when it was in flood, taking his companions with him, not by boat but on his cloak spread out over the waters. He persevered in his wonderful way of life for nearly forty years after his profession. On the day of the Virgin's Assumption in the year of salvation 1257, he gave up his soul to God. He was numbered among the Saints by Clement VIII.
