“Hosanna to the King of Israel, blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.” Today as a Church we welcome Christ the Lord into the city of Jerusalem. His path to crucifixion begins today, and it starts with the joyful hearts and great rejoicing of the people. Christ will be led to the Cross by those same joyful people who welcomed Him today with such excitement. How often in our own lives do we show great joy towards others, and then so suddenly turn away from them and treat them with hostility and violence? We can all be guilty sometimes of hiding our true emotions and showing the side of us that we want others to see. Let us keep Jesus Christ at the forefront of our hearts and minds as we conclude Lent and move into Holy Week, so that when we reach the joy of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday we can truly say that we not only suffered with Christ but that we too have risen again. May God bless you this week.

- Brian Kirby

Hosanna!
