“Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This weekend especially we seek to contemplate and understand the three part God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We hear in the Gospel that Christ will send the “Spirit of truth” to us and He will teach us and guide us to all truth. We are reminded once again that we must always seek the truth in our lives and strive to follow the ways of God. The gift of the Spirit, the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, and the love of God the Father all play a part in our life journey to heaven. We cannot have one without the other, all parts of the Trinity are essential and should have relevance in our lives. Our Easter season of celebration has ended, and soon we will enter Ordinary Time again. Let us not slip back into our “ordinary” ways though, let us not forget the great journey we are on together and the great works we are called to accomplish throughout our lives! The liturgical cycles of the Church keep us mindful that “there is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.” As we go forth again this week let us continually pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit on our community, and that as members of Holy Trinity Parish we may always seek God in three persons in all that we do. May God continue to bless you this week!
