

Saint Isidore MASS TIMES

We've made some changes.

In our efforts to offer Mass opportunities for everyone, a few changes have been made in the last few months. Here is a summary of the liturgical offerings at St. Isidore each week.

Weekend Masses >>>

Each weekend, there are now FOUR opportunities for Mass:

SATURDAY
5:00pm

These Masses will remain the same, with hymns and a Mass setting that reflect the readings of the day & the liturgical season.

SUNDAY
8:30am

Beginning with the First Sunday of Lent, this Mass will include the Entrance, Offertory, and Communion Antiphons; during Lent we will also be using a Latin setting of the Sanctus and Agnus Dei.

SUNDAY
10:30 am

SUNDAY
6:00 pm

A new Mass time on Sunday evening to provide a later Mass opportunity for busy weekend schedules; more contemporary songs and a different Mass setting are used.

Weekday Masses >>>

During the week, there are at least two Masses offered each day. The pastor has committed to keeping these Masses short enough to accommodate work schedules and lunch hours. The schedule remains the same:

MONDAY - FRIDAY
7:00 am & 12:10 pm

MONDAY ONLY
9:00 am
(Latin Extraordinary Form)

SATURDAY MORNING
7:45 am

