BLESSINGS OF ST. JOHN PAUL II STATUE & PRESENTATION

The first class relic (blood drop) and statue of St. John Paul II will be presented to St. Catherine's after the 4:00 Mass on Saturday April 27. This is the vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday, the very day on which St. John Paul II died in 2005. At the conclusion of Mass, Fr. Speitel will bless the statue (hopefully it arrives in time) and Christopher West will give a short presentation about his personal meetings with St. John Paul II and the gift receiving this relic from Cardinal Stanislaw Dzwisz ["Geevish"], John Paul II's long-time secretary. All are welcome and will be given the opportunity to venerate the precious relic of this great saint.
