Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Refrain: Lord, I lift your name on high.
Lord, I love to sing your praises.
I`m so glad you`re in my life.
I`m so glad you came to save us.

Verse: You came from heaven to earth to show the way.
From the earth to the cross, my debt to pay.
From the cross to the grave,
from the grave to the sky.
Lord, I lift your name on high.

The song lyrics above were composed by a Christian Rock musician named Rick Founds in 1989. He says that the movement ideas in the verse were inspired by his reflections on the water cycle of the earth. The patterns in all of creation, since they are made by God's design, offer glimpses into the Master Artist, the Creator of heaven and earth!

I take comfort in observing the ebbs and flows in life. Even in difficult times there is an underlying shifting of events which offers hope for change to come. When times are good, they can be enjoyed even more richly when we accept that we are blessed to be in such a moment, however fleeting.

Let us, in all things, lift the Lord's name on high!
