“By our baptism, we are members of Christ’s body and sharers in his mission. Imitating Christ, we must care for all members of our communities, honoring each person as unique, sacred, and created in the image of God.”
- USCCB, “Open Wide Our Hearts”

From Father Ben

My editors are breathing down my throat for a column, and as George Donner once said at a late family reunion: I got nothing. God bless you all and hopefully Lady Muse will inspire me ahead of my next deadline! - Fr. Ben

Weekend of September 7-8, 2019

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

At the conclusion of today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus tell a “great crowd” that “...any one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” A few of Jesus’ immediate disciples, such as Peter, John and James, did just that: They responded to Jesus’ call, renouncing everything to follow him. How do modern disciples of Jesus respond when confronted with this apparently harsh command of Jesus? Surely the renunciation of possessions need not mean literally giving all one’s possessions away, does it? Questions we might ponder this week: Do our possessions keep us from encountering Christ at Mass? Do they distract us from our parish family? Do our possessions interfere with our relationships? Do they make us insensitive to those less fortunate?

School Biz

The new security system for our school/church will be installed over the spring break period. The grant through Indiana Homeland Security will cover most of the grant. The total cost was 13,998.13. We matched the grant with 2,799.63. Cameras will monitor areas outside and within the school. All doors will have a camera & the main entrance will have a speaker to communicate with visitors who are not known.

Bob Brookbank, Principal
