FROM THE DESK OF THE Regional PAROCHIAL VICAR: On this Fifth Sunday in Lent, Fr. Brian Feller is here, and I am at Roselle, Templeton, and Halbur.

As I announced last weekend, the bishop has appointed me as pastor of the parishes in Breda, Mount Carmel, Arcadia, Halbur/Roselle, Templeton, and Glidden beginning July 10 with the assistance of Fr. Tim Schott, sacramental minister. Ministry 2025 planning meetings will continue to help all parishes work together to create stronger faith communities and to assist the priests involved who are, once again, being given more responsibilities most did not plan on when they were ordained.

Thank you to everyone who is attending our Lenten events including Stations of the Cross, Reconciliation, and the faith movie night [Therese].

Congratulations to our young parishioners who will celebrate their Rite of Confirmation on Sunday, March 18. The list can be found under their proper parishes.

Holy Week begins next Sunday. Weather permitting, we will begin each Mass outside with the blessing of palms and process back into church.

This liturgy requires extra ministers. Information is being sent to Readers and Altar Serves to help prepare them for this solemn liturgy. The EASTER VIGIL is a major and significant liturgical celebration for our Church. Most everyone ought to be present for this liturgy. As with last year, we will be using the services of ministers from the three parishes of CTKCC. We are in need of three [3] Altar Servers, several Cantors, and several Readers. If you are able to assist, please contact me. Please remember your parish in your will.....Your bequest is a testimony to your faith in our future. —Fr. Mark
