FROM THE DESK OF THE Regional PAROCHIAL VICAR: On this Sixth Sunday of Easter I am here. I will be on my annual spring vacation May 6-11, hopefully spending some time on the family farm. Deacon Greg will offer morning prayer on three of the mornings, Frs. Gary Snyder and Richard Remmes will cover any funerals. For any other spiritual needs, you may contact Fr. Kevin.

Vocations to the priesthood are vital for the survival of our Church and parishes. Why do some men do not pursue a vocation to the priesthood? Reasons are many including: struggles with commitment, broken families, pornography, personal insecurity, weakened social skills, population decline [smaller families], and poor Mass attendance. Next week: how can we encourage vocations?

Please remember your parish in your will.....Your bequest is a testimony to your faith in our future. —Fr. Mark
