THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Mystery

We can always draw from the well of mystery. It is an inexhaustible well. There is always something to be discovered. People are mysteries to us, even the people we live nearest and love most and think we know. The fundamental mystery of persons makes life interesting, of course. It also keeps the rumor and gossip mills going. The mystery of the individual and the depth of his or her soul offer us but a faint shadow of the mystery of God, who is three Persons—Father, Son, and Spirit. This is a mystery we will never cease contemplating and celebrating.

FIRST READING: Exodus 34:4b–6, 8–9 RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55
SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 13:11–13 GOSPEL: John 3:16–18

Comment

We consider the Holy Trinity today, not as a theological abstraction, but as a mystery into which we are drawn. We know God's inner life because God has shown and told us. We proceed by way of story. We respond by way of praise.

The first reading carries a sense of awe. Moses, summoned by the LORD, journeys to a high place. This "Lord" descends enshrouded in clouds and passes before Moses. This God not only tells, then repeats, the name "LORD" but offers a description, "a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Scholars tell us that the Hebrew words for God's care are words of deep, visceral feeling. The Lord looks upon and cares about the people with the anxiety and eagerness of a parent. God, the Lord, cannot help but act on behalf of an admittedly stiff-necked people.

To no one's surprise Moses' response is adoration. But then he speaks. He recognizes that the transcendent Lord seeks to be personally involved with Israel. Big God looks favorably on little Israel. Moses puts himself on the line and asks God to "come along in our company" and receive an unworthy people as God's own.

We know that God does just this. All Hebrew Scriptures in one way or another tell how it goes with a people and the God who chose them, small and contrary as they are.

The Hebrew Scriptures were the only Scriptures the followers of Jesus had. They formed the entire backdrop and stage against which and on which the story of Jesus was played out and understood. In the dark night, a troubled Nicodemus came to Jesus. He was a learned man and a ruler. Thanks to Nicodemus, we learn of Jesus' relationship to the God of Moses, the God rich in kindness and fidelity. We learn the extent of God's care for the world in the person of Jesus, the teacher. In this story, we learn that Jesus is more than a teacher. He is also the only begotten Son of the Father.

Reflection

The reflection on God—whom we address as Father and Son and Holy Spirit—is set before us today in two narratives: as abiding presence on a high place and as a quiet revelation to a troubled, hesitant Nicodemus. In these narratives we learn that God who is for us is with us in the Son. In the second reading, belief in the presence of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is evident. By the time this letter is written, the faith of the Christian community is manifest. The blessings of the Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—flow easily and familiarly. Faith in God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit is already part of the language and living awareness of the Christian community. Their words and blessings point to the presence of a personal God whose inner life is a community of love, as theirs must be.

To Father Donatus and St. Therese Church,

Thank you for welcoming Brother Paul Montero, SC, to your parish and for giving him the opportunity to speak about the missionary work of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart in English-speaking Africa.

The members of my congregation are also grateful to your parishioners for their prayerful support and generous financial assistance.

I ask that you continue to remember us in your prayers. Be assured you are gratefully remembered in the prayers and Eucharistic liturgies of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart.

Sincerely, Br. Paul J. Hebert, SC

NOVENA PRAYER TO ST. THERESE—THE LITTLE FLOWER

St. Therese, beloved friend, you promised to spend your time in heaven doing good upon the earth. WE come before you in our need. We believe that you listen to us and approach God for and with us. You are love in the heart of the God. Please accept these petitions, hopes, needs and dreams that I list below (pause).

Please present them to our loving Father so that God may do what is best for us, for our loved ones, and for the fulfillment of God's Kingdom. Continue your shower of roses in our lives. We ask you, dear friend with the bold confidence and loving care. We make this prayerful petition in the name of Jesus and through the power of his Spirit.
AMEN.
