Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel reading Jesus extends his missionary outreach beyond the chosen Twelve Apostles (see Lk 9:1-6). Notice that the charge given to the Twelve (9:3-5) is nearly identical to the charge given to the seventy-two (10:4-8). For both groups, Jesus arranged these missions as the most efficient and effective means to communicate the reality of the kingdom of God in the world. The astonishing success of both the Twelve and the seventy-two in spreading the good news of the kingdom of God is also reported. Upon return from their initial mission, the seventy-two rejoiced, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name."

As we hear in the first reading from the prophet Isaiah, the experience of the kingdom of God in Jesus' public ministry and through the work of the disciples was foreseen in Israel's prophetic tradition: "Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent." In Jesus gathering together laborers to harvest the fields, Luke saw the prophecy of Isaiah fulfilled: "When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass; the LORD's power shall be known to his servants."

We can accept.

The Church of St. Thomas More has a working relationship with the Little Sisters of the Assumption who run a thrift shop to help support their mission. As part of this relationship, we accept second hand items, which we collect for pick-up by the staff of the Little Sister's shop. Although we are always pleased to accept your contributions, and will provide you with a contribution certificate in return for your items, we can only give the Little Sisters items that they can use. Specifically, the Little Sisters can only accept clean usable clothing. Unfortunately, other items such as books, toys, and appliances cannot be used by them and frequently end up being sent to a landfill. Therefore, we are pleased to accept only those items that we can pass on to the Little Sisters. Should you have any items that they cannot use, please find another means of disposing of those items before they are lost forever. Should you have any questions regarding our acceptance program, please contact Ms. Peet at 212-876-7718. Thank you for your generosity.
