Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time serve as a warning to use the gifts that God has provided for each of us.

Introduction To The Word

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31: The first reading taken from the Book of Proverbs is a section titled "the ideal wife." Within the description of the ideal wife, our sage notes: "Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised." "Fear" of the Lord should not be understood in its narrowest sense, to be afraid of God. Rather "fear" of the Lord entails the respect and honor we owe to our Creator.

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6: In the second reading from the First Letter to the Thessalonians, Paul takes up the subject of the end-time and the return of Christ. In this reading, Paul makes three assertions about the return of Christ. First, no one knows the exact time of its arrival. Second, Jesus' return (and the judgment that follows) is inevitable despite what others may say. Third, believers in Christ have nothing to fear.

Matthew 25:14-30: In today's Gospel Jesus directs the parable of the talents to his disciples as his passion and death in Jerusalem are quickly approaching. Once again, this is a parable describing the kingdom of heaven in the future tense, when the eschaton ("end-time") has arrived and God's judgment sets in. Jesus invites the disciples to reflect on their own lives in terms of the "talents" (in Greek, literally a unit of coinage of varying worth) they have received from God.

The STM Fall Semi-Annual Appeal is currently open. We are hoping now to install automatic doors from the ramp to the Chapel which will make entering easier, particularly during the cold months when we cannot leave the doors open all the time. We are also hoping to install a stair lift from the Church to the Rectory, thereby expanding access to the facilities and meeting rooms in the Rectory. The appeal also enables us to meet our ordinary expenses. Ordinary does not mean inexpensive, nor does it mean unimportant. These expenses continue at times when many parishioners are away. We are most grateful for your strong and continuing care and support.
