Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time emphasize the importance of humility, and warn us against an arrogance that blinds us to our sin and to the work of God in our lives.

Introduction To The Word

Ezekiel 18:25-28: The first reading from the prophet Ezekiel stresses the importance of turning away from wickedness and doing "what is right and just." He challenged those in captivity to an examination of conscience. Only with a humble heart can one see clearly what is right and just and accurately assess whether or not one's ways are fair.

Philippians 2:1-11: The second reading from Paul's Letter to the Philippians is commonly referred to as Paul's "letter of joy." Paul writes to his beloved Philippian Christians: "Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves." He saw humility and selflessness as key components of being authentic believers in Christ.

Matthew 21:28-32: The parable in today's Gospel reading begins Jesus' public response to the religious leadership of Jerusalem and the Temple. The two sons in the parable could not be more different, much like the real focus of Jesus' parable—the difference between the religious leaders of Jerusalem (the one son) and the tax collectors and prostitutes (the other son). What is at issue is the refusal of the Jewish religious leadership in Jerusalem to understand what God has offered his people with John the Baptist and Jesus.

Blessing of the Animals - It has become a tradition in many churches to conduct a blessing of animals on the Sunday closest to the feast of St. Francis of Assisi. So, on Sunday, October 8th at 1:15p.m., we will have such a ceremony at St. Thomas More to give thanks to God for our animal companions and to pray for their continued good health. There will also be an opportunity for anyone whose pet has died within the past year to acknowledge that loss in a formal way. At a certain point in the ceremony, they will be invited to come forward and mention the name of the pet, how he/she died and one thing that made that animal companion so special in their lives.

All God's creatures are welcome.
