From the Pastor...

Some of you may recall that last winter we received word that the Living Stones Plan was accepted for our parish. That means that Holy Name Church in Tupper Lake would close and St. Theresa Church in Newcomb will close. They are designated as Oratories for the time being. This means you could celebrate a funeral there in summer.

People are asking when will Holy Name move to Oratory status. We do not know. However we could ask the Bishop for permission to start the process. We could start to save some parish money like $9,720.00 for heating, Insurance at $8,789.00. Keep in mind that the income for Holy Name is about $1,700. per week. It would be a job to close down Holy Name... all religious items removed, all altars, and memorials removed. I would want to pull the rose window and replace it with plain color panes. Move it to St. Alphonsus Church. So we would be wise to start the process to move to St. Alphonsus for all our spiritual needs and be good stewards of our financial resources. Start thinking about it.
