From the Pastor...

We are nearing the end of the year for school.. We must pray for our students who face final exams. Soon our young people will be out for the summer. For those who are interested Camp Guggenheim is looking for students for a week of camp. The parish pays half the cost. I have never heard any of our students complain about their week there. They always ask if we can serve a week as chaplain. I told them I could help but pick a younger priest. They assigned me the second week. Here I go off to Camp Guggenheim.

Be thinking ahead for the Woodsman Days. I like to have a church float. This is one way to evangelize the community. Our youth group have a fun time for the parade.

Soon ending the Easter Season. Into the ordinary season. Morning Mass will continue to be offered at the Holy Ghost Parish Center over the Summer.

Fr. Doug
