CHOOSE LIFE

California has passed a law that requires its more than 200 crisis pregnancy centers to post a notice that free abortions are available and that these pro-life organizations must point the way to obtaining a free abortion. Writing in National Review Online (11/13/17) David French notes that this is called "compelled speech" and is considered one of the worst forms of state censorship, and is a clear violation of the First Amendment. The Supreme Court will hear the case during its 2017-18 term.

PILGRIMAGE TO ITALY

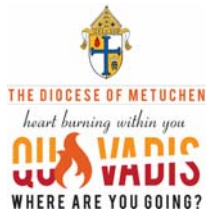

St. Magdalen de Pazzi Church, Flemington, NJ is sponsoring a pilgrimage trip to Italy in October 2018. The trip will visit Rome, Florence, Tuscan Countryside, Castelli Romani and more. For further information or a brochure, please contact Fratelli & Co. Group Travel at info@fratelliandcompany.com or call 908-766-8994.

REFLECTING ON THE WORD

You likely are familiar with the phrases "A house divided against itself cannot stand" and "Divide and conquer." Opponents often try to divide a united people by pitting them against each other. Jesus' words are true: a kingdom divided against itself cannot stand. A "TED Talk" described a bipolar young man who, when he didn't take his medication, couldn't discern external reality from internal fabrication. His behavior became very erratic. While hospitalized, police shot him because they thought him a danger to himself and others. He could not communicate this inner division. Thank God he survived. After taking his medications, his inner and outer worlds were reunited and he lived to tell the tale.

The Evil One seeks to divide human minds and hearts. Something appears to be good that really isn't, like the fruit of the tree in the garden. Someone gets into our heads, like the serpent got into Eve's. Internally divided, we choose an apparent good over reality. When our house is divided, we can't perceive the difference and resisting temptation becomes more difficult. We fall. But we have the same spirit about which the second reading speaks. That spirit unites us to God and to one another, and reunites our inner and outer worlds. Then we can perceive right from wrong, good from evil, and God's will from self-will. Our medication? Prayer and reflection, which help us discover the will of God and unite us to Christ and one another. As St. Francis de Sales taught, don't let the devil get a foothold within you. So take your medication to stay close to Jesus. We need his Spirit to experience the kindness, plenteous redemption, and freedom that keep anything from dividing and conquering us.

Consider /Discuss:

- What signs tell you that you are clearly connected to Jesus and the will of God?
- When have you felt so divided that evil seemed stronger than good?

LIVING AND PRAYING WITH THE WORD

You were united with us, O God, at baptism. You deepen that union every time we feed on your Word and the sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Help us take our daily dose of prayer and reflection, so that evil does not have a chance to divide us from you or any of your creation.
