MISSIONARY COOPERATIVE APPEAL

Rev. Jan Kwicien, Redemptorist, will speak on behalf of the Redemptorists ministries in Ukraine and Russia this weekend.

The Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, Redemptorists, is a missionary congregation that ministers to the poor in more than 70 countries around the world. The area of the former Soviet Union is undoubtedly a place where many neglected people need help. Thanks to the efforts of Polish Redemptorists, we have been building the next church there. In front of us, there is the next project: the completion of the construction at the church and pastoral center in Togliati – central Russia.

We would like to express our deep gratitude to all of you for your prayers, kindness and support of our projects. Every day, we thank God in our prayers for all people of good will, their prayers, and generosity. May God Bless you all.

We wish to welcome into the family of God and the parish community of Most Holy Redeemer the following children who were baptized here the weekend of July 8th.

- DEAN MICHAEL GRAZIANO
Son of Joseph and Nicole
- SANTINO THOMAS GROSSO
Son of Louis and Nicole
- ELIZABETH ANN MC PARLAND
Daughter of Michael and Christine
- ALEXANDRA ROSE MONCADA
Daughter of Michael and Bernadette

We pray that their parents will be examples of faith to inspire them to follow the Lord. We, as their family in faith, also accept the responsibility to help these parents in their duty to bring up their children in the practice of the Faith by our prayers and example.

HIS WORD TODAY

By: Rev. William J. Reilly

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise and glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved."

A lengthy introduction to Saul's letter to the Ephesians, not revealing his own identity, but that of all Christians. Through Christ we have been gifted with so much including His choice of us with our calling to be holy, that is, living in His grace and friendship.

Identity is so important. We hear so much about identity theft. Here we learn that we are not only especially chosen but adopted giving us all the rights and privileges which are given as our inheritance. They cannot, in the words of Pope Francis, be taken from us. As I recognize my special identity and status, I ask that I move beyond self and see those same gifts in others. Made in His image and likeness, I want to be able to join with them on my journey, as they too share in the same gift and destiny.

REFLECTING ON THE WORD

The Letter to the Ephesians reminds us that God has called us, in Christ, to be holy. We were sealed with the Holy Spirit to give praise and glory to God. St. Francis de Sales dedicated his life to helping people understand that all of us are called to holiness, whatever our way or state in life. Holiness simply means being united with God. Pope Francis preached about this during an audience on November 19, 2014. He observed that the call to holiness is not just for the ordained and professed religious; all are called to become saints. We become saints by living in communion with the Lord and serving others.

Like Amos, the shepherd prophet, and the Twelve sent out two by two to fish for people, we have all that we need to be holy and share God's love. Our human experiences and our lives of faith have the power to invite others into a relationship with Jesus Christ that brings healing, lessens the power of evil, unleashes the power of God's love, and enables people to serve one another in Christ's name. By being who we are and being that well, we give glory to God and witness the unconditional, merciful love that Jesus came to offer us when he walked the earth. When we live in communion with the Lord and one another, we grow in holiness. Or, as we say at the end of Mass, we announce the gospel of the Lord and go in peace, glorifying the Lord with our lives. Our lives pray in the words of Ephesians: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens."

Consider/Discuss:

- Do you believe that you are holy? Give some examples.
- What gifts do you have to serve others in the name of Jesus Christ?

LIVING AND PRAYING WITH THE WORD

Generous God, you have given me all that I need to grow in holiness. Open my eyes to the presence and power of your Holy Spirit within me. Free me to share your love in ways that invite others to know you, through your Son, Jesus Christ, and to discover the Spirit's presence within them.
