Our Lady of Good Help,

First Approved American Apparition of Mary

In October, 1859, a young Belgian immigrant woman, Adele Brise, received three visits from the Virgin Mary In Champion, Wisconsin. During each of the three apparitions, a lady in shining white clothes appeared to Adele. The third time she identified herself as "the Queen of Heaven who prays for the conversion of sinners." She went on to tell the 28 year-old woman, "I wish you to do the same." The Virgin Mary then gave her a mission for evangelization and catechesis: "Gather the children in this wild country, and teach them what they should know for salvation. Go and fear nothing. I will help you." Adele, who lived with her family on a small homestead in northern part of the state, followed Mary's request and taught the faith to the children of settlers and immigrants. Our Lady of Good Help is the patroness of teachers and tutors. Following a two-year formal inquiry, on December 8, 2010 (the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception), Bishop David Ricken of the Diocese of Green Bay issued a decree approving these apparitions as worthy of belief (although not obligatory) by the Christian faithful.

Because Mary said "Yes" to God, she became the Mother of our Savior!

Because Adele said "Yes" to God, the Catholic faith was taught and souls were saved!

Because Bishop Ricken said "Yes" to God and became a priest, (ordained here in La Junta in 1980), the vision of Our Lady of Good Help became the first approved American apparition of Mary!

What is God calling you to do? Say "Yes" to God for an amazing journey!
