FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

The second encounter from John's Gospel this Lent is with a man born blind. As with the Samaritan woman last week, we too are invited to know Jesus in an intimate way, this time as bestowing the sight to recognize Him as the One sent by God. Our first reading foreshadows today's Gospel by presenting the experience of the prophet Samuel, whom comes to "see" David, the youngest son of Jesse, as the one God has chosen to replace King Saul, rather than the eldest son, Eliab, whom Samuel assumed would be God's choice. Eliab, like Saul, is tall. "Don't judge by appearances," God chides. In the Gospel, we see once again a person's gradual coming into the light that is Jesus, finally recognizing him as more than a prophet, as the Son of Man who is the Lord. For those of us who are baptized, seeing goes even further than recognizing Jesus as the Light of the world. As Ephesians proclaims, we who "were once darkness . . . now . . . are light in the Lord" (5:8) and should lead lives of goodness, righteousness, and truth.

Are you a child of the light?

We Adore You, O Christ and We Praise You, Because By Your Holy Cross, You Have Redeemed the World

Today's readings are about changing our thinking and our ways to that of God's. The gift of faith was given to us through the Sacrament of Baptism. Lent reminds us of the meaning of Baptism; new life which makes us children of God and members of His family, the Church. As such "we have to do the works of the one who sent me." If we do this then we can say "the Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want." (Responsorial Psalm)

Laetare Sunday is celebrated on the fourth Sunday of Lent. The Priests may wear rose colored vestments. This Sunday marks the middle of Lent. We rejoice in continuing the Lenten restrictions with a refreshed and easier heart so we are prepared to truly celebrate the Lord's Resurrection on Easter.

The Cardinal's Appeal Supports

Dear Holy Rosary Parishioners,

As we prepare for Easter, we are hoping to provide enough food for a special meal from our "Pater Noster" food pantry for the poor. We are happy to receive any contribution of non-perishable food; however we want to share our specific need for: cans of pineapple or other canned fruit, boxes of mashed potatoes, gravy, rice, beans, spaghetti sauce, canned tomatoes, canned vegetables, powdered milk, mayonnaise and Easter desserts. Please no glass jars. We are also monetary donations to help defray the cost of the hams. The collection of food will be up until next weekend of April 1st and 2nd.
