TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This week, the Lord tells His Disciples - and us - that this road of salvation and discipleship is not an easy one. We will be faced with hardships. In a society that often values the accumulation of wealth above all else, it is simply very hard to say "no" to that mentality and live lives as good stewards of all God's gifts. We will suffer inner divisions. Others will fail to recognize the value we place on love of neighbor above all else. Even in the midst of hardship, Saint Paul reminds us that the grace of God and the gracious gift that is Jesus Christ will overflow for us. Let today's Scriptures both challenge us and offer us hope and grace.

WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE

Beginning Monday, July 3rd, there will be only one weekday Mass celebrated Monday thru Friday at 8:30am.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS ARE NEEDED

Practicing Catholics who attend Mass at least weekly and on holy days and who have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) are urged to volunteer. We are in particular need of Ministers for the 11:30am Sunday Mass. Please call the Rectory 769-0030 x 110 Training will be provided. Thank you!

< < < 2018 MASS BOOK > > >

The Mass Book for the year 2018 will open for Mass intentions on Wednesday, June 28th, beginning at 9:30am in the Rectory.

No more than two (2) Masses will be allowed by any one person for Sunday intentions and two (2) Masses by that same person for weekday intentions. There are no exceptions. The Mass intention offering is $15.00.

Please note: At this time, we will not be taking intentions for the 6:30am weekday Mass.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

769-0030 X 123
hrrreligioused@live.com

"Do Not Be Afraid" . . . "The Lord Is With You."

Doing good and avoiding evil can be a challenge and intimidating in the culture we live in. We are reminded that if we continue to follow Jesus' teachings He will acknowledge us before His Father in heaven. We are to be bold and fear not when it comes to living and being an example to God's Will. How often in our families are we faced with the mandates of society vs. Jesus' teachings? Are we bold enough to be steadfast to Jesus' teachings or do we make excuses to justify society's mandates? I unfortunately see too many caving in to the easier lifestyle of society and our children see this daily. Stop being afraid; be bold. Live and practice Jesus's teachings. Your reward will be great in heaven.

Re: Your child's Religious Education. Are they receiving one?

The church, catechists and parents work together to hand over the gift of faith to a child. This is accomplished by our participation at Sunday Mass, our participation in catechetical instruction (Religious Education class) and participation by families in discussions at home, both the class work and teaching received from the readings at Sunday Mass. When one of the three areas is missing, a child loses out on the gift of faith that rightly is theirs.

A child needs to have continuity in Religious Education. Ongoing yearly Religious Education in a child's life is important especially in a world that is challenging our faith each and every day. Do not allow outside activities to supersede your child's continuous (yearly) Religious Education. They are entitled to an ongoing and deeper understanding of their faith that progresses each year.

THANK YOU TO FR. FRASER

On behalf of all the Religious Education families, students and staff who have been at Holy Rosary, we wish to thank you for all the times you were available to hear our confessions, officiate at our First Holy Communions and Confirmations. We also thank you for the many Children's Masses you celebrated with us. May our Blessed Mother Mary, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary and Mother of all people, continue to guide and watch over you in your new assignment at St. Malacy's.

Dear Friends,

The last dozen years have been rich and rewarding in so many ways. However, it has been your response to God's grace at work in our midst that has been the most satisfying. Be assured of my prayers for the good work of Holy Rosary Parish now and in the future. Also, let me thank you for the encouragement, support and friendship you have shared with me over these last years. I will treasure those gifts always!

May God's richest blessings be yours for health, happiness and peace!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. John Fraser

Dear Fr. Fraser:

Many thanks to you and your staff who made the Armed Forces Mass such a memorable day. Our heartfelt thanks are extended to the musicians, including the beautiful voice of Claire Motta, choir director Alexis Gray, Peter Blume trumpeter, Larry Connolly bagpiper, the Boy and Girl Scouts and the whole community for their support and respect for our living and deceased veterans. Our sincerest thanks to Emily McLaughlin and the members of the Parish Activities Committee, who donated their time and talent to provide us with the delicious home baked goods. A special remembrance at this celebration and a reminder of our blessings were the packets of "you are not forgotten" flag star hand made mementos provided by Joan Clark and Marilyn Staehle.

Never forget those who have served and are servings in our military so we can enjoy our freedoms every day. God Bless America!

Sincerely,

The American Legion Post#1574
