Where life is involved; the service of Charity must be profoundly consistent. Together we are involved in God's work to build a culture of life—to promote a consistent ethic of life. To witness to the sanctity and value of every human life. To respect, protect, love and serve life from fertilization to natural death.

"We are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us."

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heart-breaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us "as a mother comforts her child." The prophet describes us not as the usual "children of God," but as "babies." We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can "make troubles" for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

Online Giving—St. Charles has set up an online giving account for anyone wishing to make offertory payments online. Please visit our website@www.st-charles-borromeo.org.
