FATHER'S REFLECTION: 32nd Sunday A

I became a member of the boys' eagle scout since I was seven years old, and I still remember the scout motto, "Be Prepared." All of us need to inculcate this scout motto into our Christian Faith and keep the lamp of Faith, which is the Light of Christ burning brightly inside us. It is only in His Spirit that we could be like the five wise bridesmaids that are eulogized in the parable of today's gospel, and be always prepared, for we do not know the time or day the Lord will call us. It will be awful to give in to a situation that will make the lamp of our Faith – the Spirit of Christ dim or dead, and be told later by the Lord that He does not know us when we knock at the door of heaven.
