FATHER'S REFLECTION: 3rd Sunday of Easter

Genuine love is usually practical. The bona fide of Christ's love for us is evident in the Paschal Mystery. There must be authentic things that demonstrate our love of God and others. Since we truly love God, we need to repent and keep his commandments. Keeping the commandments perfectly may not be very easy, but we need to try our best. God understands our best even if it is not good enough in the eyes of people. We need to forgive and give peace to others just like Jesus did for His disciples. In them, we show the world that God's forgiveness is still available for those who change from doing wrong to doing good.

Fr. Leo Ahanotu
