A Message*Happy Easter everyone!

I want to use this opportunity to thank all those who worked hard to make our Lenten and Triduum services spiritually fulfilling. I would like to thank Deacons Mel and Tim together with their wives Sylvia and Lee. We are grateful to God that Deacon Herb was able to be with us for Holy Thursday and Good Friday services. It was good to see him and he continues to be in our prayers. I thank our altar servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, greeters, sacristans, church decorators, and in a special way our spiritual renewal choir. I am grateful to Shawn Perkins, our music minister. Shawn did a great job for our Lenten and Triduum services. I thank the staff of St. Jude Parish. I am blessed to have such a dedicated staff working for our parish.

Lent is a time we prepare ourselves to renew our baptismal promises at Easter. Lent leads us to the Triduum when we enter into the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. On Good Friday, Jesus offered the highest, greatest, most holy, perfect and acceptable sacrifice to the Father. Jesus offered his very life. On Calvary, the second person of the Blessed Trinity offered himself to the Father. The sacrifice of Calvary, is God offering himself to God.

A day before he offered himself, that is, Holy Thursday night, Jesus told his apostles, "Do this in memory of me." What he asked them to do in memory of him would actually happen the following day. Whenever we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, we do not just remember what Jesus did we actually re-present, bring to this space at this time the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ on Calvary and participate in it. St. John Chrysostom tells us, "When the Eucharist is being celebrated, the sanctuary is filled with countless angels who adore the divine victim immolated on the altar." In the Eucharist we enter into the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and through it become divinized.

I thank each of you who Sunday after Sunday gather with us here at St. Jude to celebrate the Eucharist. I encourage you to please continue to do so for the Eucharist is the greatest sacrifice any of us can offer to God. It is said that once, St. Teresa was overwhelmed with God's graciousness towards her. She asked our Lord "How can I thank you?" Our Lord replied, "ATTEND ONE MASS." The Mass is the greatest gift we can ever offer to God.

In fact, the Mass is the greatest gift God ever offered to us. St. John Vianney tells us, "There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us."

In the Eucharist we join Jesus in offering the most perfect sacrifice to the Father. There is no sacrifice or good work in this world, not even our very lives, that can equal the sacrifice and good work of the Eucharist.

St. John Vianney tells us,

"All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are all works of men; but the Mass is a work of God. Martyrdom is nothing compared to the Sacrifice of the Mass. For martyrdom is the sacrifice of Man to God; but the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man,"

On behalf of Fr. Powers and our entire parish staff, I want to wish each of you and your families a very Blessed and Holy Easter Season.

*Blessings,
Fr. Ignatius*

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Divine Mercy Sunday Devotion

Join us in Church
 Sunday, April 12 at 2:00 PM

In His revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, Jesus made mention of His desires concerning Divine Mercy Sunday on 14 different occasions. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in entry 699 of the Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Send

As each of the four Gospels ends, Jesus sends his disciples into the world. They are on a mission. They have a purpose. And that mission and purpose is to continue what he has begun. When we realize that Jesus sends not only his first disciples but us as well to continue his work as his disciples today, we stand amazed and overwhelmed by the scope of our calling. But we are not alone.

The Holy Spirit of Pentecost empowered the first disciples to begin their mission to carry the mission of Jesus to the ends of the earth. That same Holy Spirit enables us through the sacrament of Confirmation to take up and effectively fulfill the great task entrusted to us. The Lord Jesus truly sends us but not without the grace to fulfill our mission. He sends us, his confirmed disciples, in the Holy Spirit.
