TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 8, 2017

Jesus foretold both his death on the cross and his ultimate triumph. He knew he would be rejected and put to death, but he also knew that would not be the end. After rejection would come glory - the glory of his resurrection from the grave and his ascension to the right hand of the Father in heaven. The Lord blesses his people today with the gift of his kingdom - a kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. And he promises that we will bear much fruit if we abide in him (see John 15:1-11). He entrusts his gifts and grace (unmerited favor and blessing) to each of us and he gives us work to do in his vineyard - the body of Christ in our midst today. He promises that our labor for him will not be in vain if we persevere with faith to the end (see 1 Corinthians 15:58). We can expect trials and even persecution. But in the end we will see triumph. Do you follow and serve the Lord Jesus with joyful hope and confidence in the victory he has won for you and the gift of abundant new life in the Holy Spirit?

Many thanks to the Tim Lyons Family for the beautiful flowers.

"If I can give you any advice, I beg you to get closer to the Eucharist and to Jesus... We must pray to Jesus to give us that tenderness of the Eucharist." ~Mother Teresa of Calcutta~

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation. NEXT ADORATION IS Sunday, November 5.

O merciful gracious God, we come before you with a heartfelt gratefulness. We humbly supplicate you to be with us as the mediator of our parish family. Gracious God, help us to be united in your steadfast love and mercy. As a family of Annunciation, we come together for a common cause, to radiate your love and mercy in everyday of our life especially on the Maple Leaf Festival.

*Help us to be a channel of peace and kindness towards our new neighbors.
*Assist us, to be a people that build relationships with our community.
*Prepare us to encounter our savior those visiting our parish family.

Encourage, our Annunciation parish family to work together for good of our parish and our community and uplift us so that we may bring the glory of our Savior to all that we meet and serve during our Maple Leaf activity. We make this prayer through the intercession of our Blessed Mother. Amen.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

What do you think? This weekend, St. Paul gets very specific in his recommendations of what we should think about. Why? Because what we spend time thinking about, we see more of! Thinking about what color to paint your house? All you notice is the colors of the houses in your neighborhood.

Chances are, you married someone who is a mix of strengths and weaknesses. Why not spend time thinking about your spouse's wonderful qualities? It won't make the bad things go away, but you will be spending so much time looking for the good that you won't notice as much.

This week think about your spouse's:

- Most endearing qualities
• Most recent sacrificial act
• Most attractive traits

For more encouragement in thinking the best about your spouse, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
