TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 22, 2017

What do we owe God and our neighbor? Scripture tells us to give to everyone whatever is their due and to "owe no one anything, except to love one another" (Romans 13:6-8). The Jewish authorities sought to trap Jesus in a religious-state issue. The Jews resented their foreign rulers and despised paying taxes to Caesar. They posed a dilemma to test Jesus to see if he was loyal to them and to their understanding of religion. If Jesus answered that it was lawful to pay taxes to a pagan ruler, then he would lose credibility with the Jewish nation who would regard him as a coward and a friend of Caesar. If he said it was not lawful, then the Pharisees would have grounds to report him to the Roman authorities as a political trouble-maker and have him arrested.

This story has another deeper meaning as well. We, too, have been stamped with God's image since we are created in his own likeness - "God created man in his own image-male and female he created them" (Genesis 1:26-27). We rightfully belong not to ourselves, but to God who created us and redeemed us in the precious blood of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ (see 1 Corinthians 6:19-20). Paul the Apostle says that we are to present our bodies as a living sacrifice to God (Romans 12:1). Do you acknowledge that your life and everything you possess belongs to God and not to yourself? And do you give to God what rightfully belongs to him?

Eucharistic Adoration is the 1st Sunday of the month at Annunciation. NEXT ADORATION IS Sunday, November 5.

Prayer for the Success of the Maple Leaf Festival

O merciful gracious God, we come before you with a heartfelt gratefulness. We humbly supplicate you to be with us as the mediator of our parish family. Gracious God, help us to be united in your steadfast love and mercy. As a family of Annunciation, we come together for a common cause, to radiate your love and mercy in everyday of our life especially on the Maple Leaf Festival.

- Enable us to be a mediator of love and mercy to our neighbors at the booth.
- Help us to be a channel of peace and kindness towards our new neighbors.
- Assist us, to be a people that build relationships with our community.
- Prepare us to encounter our savior those visiting our parish family.

Encourage, our Annunciation parish family to work together for good of our parish and our community and uplift us so that we may bring the glory of our Savior to all that we meet and serve during our Maple Leaf activity. We make this prayer through the intercession of our Blessed Mother. Amen.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

What is your mission?

This week Jesus instructs us to give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's. This is not an equal divide! Although we need to follow the just laws of our country, what belongs to God is our whole lives and our main mission. As we look at our marriages, it can be easy to equate outside responsibilities with those to our spouse, when in fact we promised our spouse the gift of our whole self! Think about:

- Do my outside commitments to work, friends and volunteering interfere with my duty to my spouse?
- Do I confide first in my spouse and secondarily in other friends and family?

For ideas on how to prioritize your marriage, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

DAILY PRAYER FOR CONFIRMATION

*Spirit of God, grant me:
 The gift of wisdom
 To see the world through your eyes,
 The gift of counsel
 To make difficult decisions,
 The gifts of knowledge and understanding
 To use my mind to know you and to love you,
 The gift of fortitude
 To have the courage to live in the faith
 Despite the difficulties and disappointments,
 The gift of piety
 To be able to express my special love
 And commitment to you,
 And the right kind of awesome fear
 That makes me pause to wonder and revere God's Love.
 Amen.*
