SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

JUNE 3, 2018

"This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many"

Mark 14:12-16,22-26 [Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ] (alternate reading: Mark 2:23 - 3:6)

And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the passover lamb, his disciples said to him, "Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the passover?" And he sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the householder, 'The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I am to eat the passover with my disciples?' And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us." And the disciples set out and went to the city, and found it as he had told them; and they prepared the passover. And as they were eating, he took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. 24 And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I shall not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

When we receive from the Lord's table we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ, who makes us sharers in his body and blood. Ignatius of Antioch (35-107 A.D.) calls it the "one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death, and the food that makes us live for ever in Jesus Christ" (Ad Eph. 20,2). This supernatural food is healing for both body and soul and strength for our journey heavenward. When you approach the Table of the Lord, what do you expect to receive? Healing, pardon, comfort, and rest for your soul? The Lord has much more for us, more than we can ask or imagine. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist is an intimate union with Christ. As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens us in charity and enables us to break with disordered attachments to creatures and to be more firmly rooted in the love of Christ.

*Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?
"Lord Jesus, you nourish and sustain us with your very own presence and life. You are the "Bread of Life" and the "Cup of Salvation". May I always hunger for you and be satisfied in you alone."*

Parents and grandparents! Summer Religious Education program will be July 9-13 at Annunciation. All children are encouraged to attend this week of Faith and Fun.

There will be no daily Mass the weeks of June 4-8, and June 11-16. Father Joe will be attending retreats for the Diocese and his Order. Please keep Father Joe in your prayers as he travels to these retreats. There will be no evening Mass on Sunday, June 10th.

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting a special presentation on "The Marian Apparitions" by Dr. Troy Hinkle from the School of Faith of the Archdiocese of KCK. He is an expert on Church approved Marian apparitions, and his focus for this presentation will be on the apparitions at Fatima, Portugal, beginning in 1916. Marian apparitions have taken place throughout the centuries, but as Troy stated "they have become more frequent and more urgent", so this will be a very interesting presentation. The presentation will be on Wednesday, June 20, 7 p.m. at Annunciation. It is open to all parishioners and feel free to bring family and friends.

REFLECTION

"A priest was sitting in an airport waiting for his flight. A man sat down beside him and began to give his opinions on religion. He boasted, "I won't accept anything I can't understand. Take this business of three Gods in one God or whatever it is. I can't take it. Nobody can explain it to me, so I will not believe it."

Pointing to the sun streaming in the window, the priest asked, "do you believe in the sun?" "Why, of course," the doubter admitted. "Alright, the priest continued, "the rays you see coming through that window are from the sun, thousands and thousands of miles from there. The heat we feel comes from both the sun and its rays. The Holy Trinity is something like that. The sun is God the Father; the sun sends out its rays, God the Son. Then from both the sun and its rays from the Father and the Son, proceeds or comes the Holy Spirit, the heat. Can you explain how it happens? The doubter quickly changed the subject.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity renews our mission of living in communion with God and all people on the model of the divine communion.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

"This is my body, given up for you." These words, spoken at Mass, make Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament.

If you are married in the Church, you and your spouse are a different kind of "blessed sacrament," one designed by God to signify the sacrificial love that Jesus has for us all! We also make Jesus present when we "give up our bodies" for each other, in ways such as:

- Making physical affection and intimacy an important part of our lives
- Carrying and/or caring for the needs of children
- Working to provide for the family's needs
- Performing ordinary acts of service with great love
- Choosing to be present with your spouse instead of elsewhere

~FAITH~ FAMILY~ COMMUNITY~

*What will you do to enrich your Family's Faith this summer?
 Faith based ideas for a fun summer*

Add in Prayer. Summer provides more flexibility, but that does not mean we should take a break from our relationship with God. In fact, summer allows more opportunity for prayer. As a family, why not add at least one daily Mass, if not more, into the summer schedule? Other ideas include adding an additional Rosary to family prayer time, scheduling a weekly family Bible study, or signing up for a summer holy hour with older children.

Attend Vacation Bible School. VBS is a fun week of Bible stories, songs, crafts and friendship. Annunciation/St.Francis Bible School is July 9-13 at Annunciation! This year's program will focus on Mary. Your children will truly enjoy and learn!

Visit a Shrine. Wherever you are traveling this summer, consider adding a visit to a shrine, cathedral or other Catholic site to your itinerary. Search online to find a Catholic shrine or historic church near your home or vacation destination, and add it to your itinerary.

Pack It. On your family's road trip, or even as you run from soccer camp to the library, make sure to have faith-based CDs to listen to in the car. Holy Heroes has produced some outstanding saint dramas that are available for download or on CDs. Children will enjoy listening to these, and parents will appreciate the quality of what their children are learning.

Plant a Mary Garden. Place a statue of Our Lady in your yard. Mary gardens have been part of our Catholic tradition for a long time. They can be elaborate or simple, depending on your gardening skills. A Mary garden can even be created in large flowerpots by adding a small statue or holy card of Our Blessed Mother among the flowers.

Don't Forget You. As we focus on making sure our children have a fun summer, it's important not to neglect our own spiritual growth. This summer, make it a priority to read at least one faith-enriching book. As we continue planning a fun summer for our families, hopefully these simple ideas will inspire us to incorporate our Catholic faith.
