TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JUNE 10, 2018

"Whoever does the will of God is my brother, and sister, and mother"

Mark 3:20-35

[Then he went home] and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for people were saying, "He is beside himself."

And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul, and by the prince of demons he casts out the demons." And he called them to him, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man; then indeed he may plunder his house.

"Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin" -- for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

And his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside they sent to him and called him. And a crowd was sitting about him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around on those who sat about him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers!"

Whoever does the will of God is my brother, and sister, and mother."

Meditation:

Is the Lord Jesus honored in your home? Why would Jesus' relatives be so upset with him when he began his public ministry? On one occasion Jesus remarked that a man's enemies will be the members of his own household (Matthew 10:36). The Gospel of Mark records the reaction of Jesus' relatives when he went home: they came to seize him. They, no doubt, thought that Jesus must have gone mad or become a religious fanatic. How could a good home-body from Nazareth leave his father's carpentry trade and go off to become a traveling preacher?

Jesus had thrown away the security and safety of a quiet and respectable life close to his family and relatives. He, undoubtedly, expected opposition from the Jewish authorities. The hardest opposition, however, may come from someone close to us, even your own kin. Jesus met opposition with grace and with determination to fulfill his Father's will.

Are you ready to obey and follow the Lord even if others oppose your doing so?

"Lord Jesus, may I always put you first and find joy in doing your will. May your love and charity grow in me, especially in the face of opposition and adversity."

The Social Justice Commission will meet on Tuesday, June 19, 7 p.m. in St. Ann's Hall. This will be a planning meeting for the upcoming School Supply drive. If anyone is interested in this commission and didn't have a chance to sign-up, please feel free to come to the meeting.

As part of the school supply fund raising, there will be a garage sale held at Annunciation on Saturday, July 21. Parishioners are asked to bring garage sale items (NO CLOTHING PLEASE) to the church during the week of July 14-19. The items will be priced on July 20. Volunteers are needed to help with the pricing and sale. More info will be posted after the commission meeting on June 19.

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting a special presentation on "The Marian Apparitions" by Dr. Troy Hinkle from the School of Faith of the Archdiocese of KCK. He is an expert on Church approved Marian apparitions, and his focus for this presentation will be on the apparitions at Fatima, Portugal, beginning in 1916. Marian apparitions have taken place throughout the centuries, but as Troy stated "they have become more frequent and more urgent", so this will be a very interesting presentation. The presentation will be on Wednesday, June 20, 7 p.m. at Annunciation. It is open to all parishioners and feel free to bring family and friends.

Summer Religious Education program will be July 9-13 at Annunciation. All children are encouraged to attend this week of Faith and Fun. The focus this year will be on our Blessed Mother, with great stories and projects for the kids.

REFLECTION

As humans, there are two things we bring with us to receive Communion: Our attitudes, and our selfish interests. These interests and attitudes often compete with the goals and mission of the Church.

Communion is more than a memorial. Our continued participation in this powerfully symbolic ceremony molds our thinking and brings to life deeply spiritual truths in very concrete ways. It shapes our identity as a people of God and provides the truly blessed assurance that we have been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb. The "message" of communion is important and deserves our full attention.

Pray that the Body and Blood of Jesus will purify our attitudes and selfish interests. This prayer will help us prepare ourselves to receive the Holy Sacrament of Communion.

The Body and Blood of Christ is given up for You.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

The Blame Game

Have you ever had a dream where you are naked in front of a big crowd? This fear of being exposed seems to go all the way back to the Garden. This weekend we hear Adam and Eve facing God in the wake of the first sin. Being unable to hide, they try another approach... blame.

You can just picture Adam pointing at Eve, and Eve pointing at the snake!

Marriage is a call back to the Garden to begin again, now with Jesus' help and mercy.

- Commit to being totally honest with your spouse.
- Admit your faults quickly.
- Ask and grant forgiveness sincerely.
- Make frequent use of the sacrament of Reconciliation.
