SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST JUNE 24, 2018

"The hand of the Lord was with him"

Scripture: Luke 1:57-66,80 (alternate reading: Luke 1:5-17)

Now the time came for Elizabeth to be delivered, and she gave birth to a son. And her neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they would have named him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said, "Not so; he shall be called John." And they said to her, "None of your kindred is called by this name." And they made signs to his father, inquiring what he would have him called. And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John." And they all marveled. And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. And fear came on all their neighbors. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea; and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be?" For the hand of the Lord was with him. And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Meditation: Birthdays are a special time to remember and give thanks for the blessings that have come our way. Are you grateful for the ways that God has worked in your life, even from your birth? In many churches of the East and West the birth of John the Baptist is remembered on this day. The friends of Zechariah and Elizabeth marveled at the wonderful way in which God blessed them with a child. This child was destined by God for an important mission. The last verses in the last book of the Old Testament, taken from the prophet Malachi, speak of the Lord's messenger, the prophet Elijah who will return to "turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers" (Malachi 4:6).

REFLECTION

Two seeds lay side by side in the fertile soil. The first seed said, "I want to grow! I want to send my roots deep into the soil beneath me, and thrust my sprouts through the Earth's crust above me ... I want to unfurl my tender buds like banners to announce the arrival of Spring ... I want to feel the warmth of the sun on my face and the blessing of the morning dew on my petals!" And so she grew...

The second seed Said, "Hmmm. if I send my roots into the ground below, I don't know what I will encounter in the dark. If I push my way through the hard soil above me I may damage my delicate sprouts ... what If I let my buds open and a snail tries to eat them? And if I were to open my blossoms, A small child may pull me from the ground. No, It Is much better for me to wait until it is safe." And so she waited...

A yard hen scratching around in the early spring ground for food found the waiting seed and promptly ate it.

Do not be the seed that waits. God wants you to grow and "bloom where you are planted!"

MARRIAGE MINUTE

The Cross of Infertility

This weekend we celebrate the birth of John the Baptist, a miraculous child born to parents who bore the heavy burden of infertility for many years. God answered Elizabeth and Zachariah's prayers, but there are likely couples you know who are still waiting for their answer. Here is how you can help:

- Don't give advice unless asked.
- Acknowledge their suffering and offer to listen.
- Be sensitive regarding baby or child-related events.
- Continue to pray and let your friend know you are praying.

If you are in the midst of this struggle yourself, we know there are no easy answers. We join you in prayer with this weekend's psalm: For you are my hope, O LORD; my trust, O LORD, from my youth.

~FAITH~ FAMILY~ COMMUNITY~

Troy Hinkle from the School of Faith, gives a presentation about the Apparitions of Fatima. Many thanks to everyone who came and most especially to the Knights of Columbus for providing this spiritual education for our parishes.

In summary, Troy Hinkle urges every Catholic to follow these steps to preserve our Catholic faith and family.

"We are in a war and showing up to mass, putting your dollar in the plate and leaving after communion is not enough. We are called to do more..."

Please remember to pray for the church by following these simple guidelines.

- First Saturday Devotion: (5 First Saturdays in a row) (with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary)
- Praying the Rosary
- Go to Confession
- Go to Mass
- Meditate for 15 minutes on the remaining mysteries of the rosary

Remember to pray the Rosary daily as it is the ultimate weapon against the devil.
