FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 8, 2018

"The day will come when they will fast"

Matthew 9:14-17

Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?" And Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear is made. Neither is new wine put into old wineskins; if it is, the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins are destroyed; but new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved."

Meditation: Which comes first, fasting or feasting? The disciples of John the Baptist were upset with Jesus' disciples because they did not fast. Fasting was one of the three most important religious duties, along with prayer and almsgiving. Jesus gave a simple explanation. There's a time for fasting and a time for feasting (or celebrating). To walk as a disciple with Jesus is to experience a whole new joy of relationship akin to the joy of the wedding party in celebrating with the groom and bride their wedding bliss. A time to rejoice and a time to mourn

But there also comes a time when the Lord's disciples must bear the cross of affliction and purification. For the disciple there is both a time for rejoicing in the Lord's presence and celebrating his goodness and a time for seeking the Lord with humility and fasting and for mourning over sin. Do you take joy in the Lord's presence with you and do you express sorrow and contrition for your sins? The closed mind that refuses to learn

Jesus goes on to warn his disciples about the problem of the "closed mind" that refuses to learn new things. Jesus used an image familiar to his audience - new and old wineskins. In Jesus' times, wine was stored in wineskins, not bottles. New wine poured into skins was still fermenting. The gases exerted gave pressure. New wine skins were elastic enough to take the pressure, but old wine skins easily burst because they had become hard and had lost their ability to expand and stretch. What did Jesus mean by this comparison? Are we to reject the old in place of the new? Treasuring the old and new wine of the Holy Spirit

Just as there is a right place and a right time for fasting and for feasting, so there is a right place for the old as well as the new. Jesus says the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old(Matthew 13:52). How impoverished we would be if we only had the Old Testament or the New Testament books of the Bible, rather than both. The Lord gives us wisdom so we can make the best use of both the old and the new. He doesn't want us to hold rigidly to the past and to be resistant to the new work of his Holy Spirit in our lives. He wants our minds and hearts to be like new wine skins - open and ready to receive the new wine of the Holy Spirit. Are you eager to grow in the knowledge and understanding of God's word and plan for your life?

"Lord Jesus, fill me with your Holy Spirit, that I may grow in the knowledge of your great love and truth. Help me to seek you earnestly in prayer and fasting that I may turn away from sin and willfulness and conform my life more fully to your will. May I always find joy in knowing, loving, and serving you."

REFLECTION

Soccer's World Cup has captured the attention of millions of fans across the globe. These passionate fans have high expectations of the players and teams they support. The reason for their passion is they have been emotionally touched by the play on the pitch, and pride for their country.

We as Christians have high expectations for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We expect Jesus to touch our lives in times of need and sorrow. But do we have the same expectation of ourselves to touch the lives of others?

Jesus died for our sins and provided us a path to salvation. We must carry on His will by having high expectation for ourselves and serving others.

Through Jesus, God has given each of us the gift of healing touch. Every moment of our lives provides an opportunity to experience the touch of Jesus, and to spread it.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Weakness is hard to accept... both in ourselves and our spouse. This weekend's readings tell us that when we are weak, we are strong. Why?

- Every act of forgiveness is a recommitment to love that makes us stronger.
- Our own weakness makes us humble, relying on God's grace.
- Accepting our spouse's weakness helps us to be patient with ourselves (and vice versa!).

Stuck thinking about your spouse's faults? Try massive amounts of compliments and affirmation! They don't erase weakness but change your focus.

To maximize the joy in your marriage check out: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

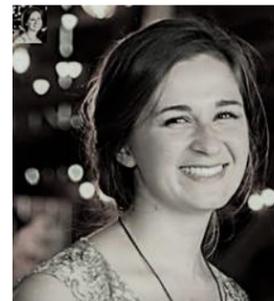

THANK YOU MICHAEL MILLS!

Many thanks to Michael Mills for being our organist and music director for the past 1 1/2 years. His love for music and his talents will be missed! Best Wishes!

WELCOME MIRIAM WALSKI

We are pleased to introduce to you our new organist at Annunciation, beginning July 29.

Miriam Walski is currently a graduate student at KU, studying Classics and organ performance. She grew up in northern Minnesota, but Miriam has called Kansas home for five years, graduating from Benedictine College before coming to KU in the fall of 2017. She has over ten years of experience in church music, from cantoring and playing the organ to liturgy planning and singing in choirs. Her love of Catholic liturgy and especially of the Most Holy Eucharist has inspired her to serve at Annunciation, and she praises God for this new opportunity to help His people to pray and draw nearer to Him through sacred music.
