TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME September 9, 2018

"He has done all things well"

Scripture: Mark 7:31-37

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decapolis. And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand upon him. And taking him aside from the multitude privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. And he charged them to tell no one; but the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; he even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Meditation: How do you expect the Lord Jesus to treat you when you ask for his help? Do you approach with fear and doubt, or with faith and confidence? Jesus never turned anyone aside who approached him with sincerity and trust. And whatever Jesus did, he did well. He demonstrated both the beauty and goodness of God in his actions.

The Lord's touch awakens faith and brings healing

When Jesus approaches a man who is both deaf and a stutterer, Jesus shows his considerateness for this man's predicament. Jesus takes him aside privately, not doubt to remove him from embarrassment with a noisy crowd of gawkers (onlookers). Jesus then puts his fingers into the deaf man's ears and he touches the man's tongue with his own spittle to physically identify with this man's infirmity and to awaken faith in him. With a word of command the poor man's ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.

What is the significance of Jesus putting his fingers into the man's ears? Gregory the Great, a church father from the 6th century, comments on this miracle: "The Spirit is called the finger of God. When the Lord puts his fingers into the ears of the deaf mute, he was opening the soul of man to faith through the gifts of the Holy Spirit."

"REFLECTION"

Christian Spirituality, we often see conflicting approaches: spirituality of avoidance, and spirituality of involvement.

The spirituality of avoidance emphasizes the devout fulfilment of pious religious obligations and ritual observances.

The spirituality of involvement emphasizes active solidarity with sinners and extends a helping hand to them, believing it is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness.

The Pharisees and scribes speak about the spirituality of avoidance. The balance in Christian spirituality consists in reconciling these two tendencies and bringing them into harmony, hearing and doing.

Are you a "hearer or a doer?"

MARRIAGE MINUTE

It's not about you!

A joyful marriage is critical, not just for our own happiness, but for the good of the whole Church. Our good works are meant to spill over from an abundance of love within us. If you are married, it is your relationship with your spouse that is meant to be an overflowing fountain!

In this way, couples can be the means by which God provides the justice, food and liberty mentioned in today's psalm. Are you and your spouse called to:

- Be foster parents?
- Feed the hungry through parish outreach?
- Mentor the engaged?
- Invite families outside your normal circle for dinner?
- Befriend an elderly neighbor or single parent?

Begin by looking at your talents and interests, and jump in from there! Find more at www.joyfulmarriageproject.com
