TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME October 14, 2018

"Give - and you will have treasure in heaven"
Scripture: Mark 10:17-30

And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.'" And he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth." And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." At that saying his countenance fell, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God."

Peter began to say to him, "Lo, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

Meditation: What gives hope and satisfaction to our desire for happiness and security? A young man who had the best the world could offer - wealth and security - came to Jesus because he lacked one thing (Mark 10:17-27). He wanted the kind of lasting peace and happiness which money could not buy him. The answer he got, however, was not what he was looking for. He protested that he kept all the commandments - but Jesus spoke to the trouble in his heart. One thing kept him from giving himself whole-heartedly to God. While he lacked nothing in material goods, he was nonetheless possessive of what he had. He placed his hope and security in what he possessed. So when Jesus challenged him to make God his one true possession and treasure, he became sad.

REFLECTION

"The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring; this covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament." We could understand this love, from three dimensions...

1. A Love that is obedient

Jesus says, "If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love" (Jn 15: 10) Jesus remained in the love of the Father, by doing His commandments.

2. A Love that is sacrificial

Jesus says, "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (Jn 15: 13)

3. A Love that is fruitful

Jesus says, "... I chose and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain..." (Jn 15: 16)

The Lord has loved us tremendously... with a love that is obedient, sacrificial and fruitful. Each of us is to possess this same treasure of love. May the Lord fill us with an awareness of the sanctity and supremacy of Marriage and help us to persevere in, to preserve, and to promote this Sacred Sacrament.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Rules or relationship?

The Church gives us some pretty specific guidance on how to live out our sexuality, but if we look at them as just a list of "do's" and "don'ts" or burdensome rules, we miss out on the whole meaning behind them, and risk being like the "Rich Young Man" in this weekend's Gospel.

The Church's teachings on sexuality are meant to guide us into a deeper relationship with our spouse, just as the commandments were meant to guide the "Rich Young Man" into a deeper relationship with God. We can do this by:

- Admitting they are difficult and asking God for the grace of courage to live them out.
- Seeking clear teaching on "why" the Church teaches what she does before rejecting them.
- Ask a trusted friend or priest to help you understand the teachings you struggle with the most. For more resources, www.archkck.org/family

Father Joe visited and administered communion to Tom and Eloise Kipp, who have recently moved from their home in Baldwin to assisted living in Olathe. They are doing well, and send their love and prayers to their friends. If you would drop in or send a note they would love to see or hear from you: Aberdeen Village, 17500 W. 119th Street, Room 2303, Olathe, KS 66061

~FAITH~ FAMILY~ COMMUNITY~

MAPLE LEAF QUILT RAFFLE!

We have another beautiful quilt to raffle off at Maple Leaf again this year, thanks to the generosity of our parishioner, Jeanine Berrier.

We are asking that each family sell $20 in tickets. Tickets are $1 for one, or 6 tickets for $5. We will be raffling the quilt on Sunday, October 21, at the Maple Leaf Booth. Return your tickets by October 19 to Father Joe or Nancy Kronoshek, or bring when you bring your baked goods to church, or drop at the church office.

THANK YOU JEANINE!
